Effective School Librarianship Patrick Lo,Heather Rogers,Dickson K.W. Chiu,2018-04-27 These volumes provide a series of informative interviews with school teacher librarians practicing in different parts of the world The 2 volume set showcases the resilience creativity and best practices from successful school librarians from Europe Asia Africa Australia and North and South America The librarians interviewed come from all different schools and schools systems from a tiny recently built school library in a rural village in Africa to an ultra modern library in Sweden Featuring 37 interviews with successful school librarians from across the globe the volumes let us hear the stories from countries around the world They tell about their creative and innovative school library projects their unconventional reading programs and their best practices and experiences in addressing the challenges of supporting basic literacy A wide selection of methodologies and approaches are discussed offering a global voyage through topics important in school librarianship The 2 volume set also addresses recent advancements in information and communication technologies ICTs and the shift toward inquiry based learning that impacts school libraries worldwide The books are packed with information that can be used by school librarians teachers school administrators and others in a variety of ways Readers can borrow best practices from the experiences presented in the book and the volumes can also serve as a strong voice for practicing school librarians and the profession through expanding the opportunities for professional sharing in the international school library community The International Baccalaureate: 50 Years of Education for a Better World George Walker,Ian Hill,Judith Fabian,2018-10-19 To celebrate its 50th anniversary the IB proudly invites you to read about the first half century of its ongoing story Written by a series of significant figureheads and stakeholders this book describes and celebrates the ways in which the IB has seized the opportunity not only to address the need for an internationally recognized certification of educational achievement but also to frame a global vision for values

based learning that improves the prospects for a better and more peaceful world Contributors Carolyn Adams Sir John Daniel Judith Fabian Howard Gardner Laura Gardner Jenny Gillett Matt Glanville Judith Guy Robert Harrison Gareth Hegarty Ian Hill Carol Inugai Dixon Siva Kumari Andrew Macdonald Andrew Macle hose Pilar Quezzaire Angela Riviere Dominic Robeau George Rupp HRH Princess Sarvath El Hassan of Jordan Anthony Tait Nicholas Tate George Walker Encyclopedia of Education: IEA-Lowenfeld James W. Guthrie,2003 On the Same Track Carol Corbett Burris,2015-03-17 A public school principal s account of the courageous leaders who have dismantled the tracking systems in their schools in order to desegregate classrooms What would happen if a school eliminated the tracks that rank students based on their perceived intellectual abilities Would low achieving students fall behind and become frustrated Would their higher achieving peers suffer from a watered down curriculum Or is tracking itself the problem A growing body of research shows that tracking doesn t increase learning for the minority and low income students who are overrepresented in low track classrooms This de facto segregation has led many civil rights advocates to argue that tracking is turning back the clock on equal education As a principal at a New York high school Carol Corbett Burris believed that the curriculum for the best students was the best curriculum for all She helped lead a bold plan to eliminate tracking from her school and the results couldn t have been further from the doom and gloom scenarios of tracking proponents Instead there was a dramatic improvement in the achievement of all students across racial and socioeconomic divisions and a near elimination of the achievement gap Today due to those efforts International Baccalaureate English is the twelfth grade curriculum for South Side students and all students take the same challenging courses together to prepare them for college In On the Same Track Burris draws on her own experience on the experiences of other schools and on the latest research to make an impassioned case for detracking Not only does the practice of tracking fail to benefit lower tracked students as Burris shows but it also results in the resegregation of classrooms Furthermore she argues that many of today s popular reforms emanate from the same sort and select mentality that reinforces social stratification based on race and class On the Same Track is a rousing controversial and yet optimistic account of how we need to change our assumptions and policies if we are to live up to the promise of democratic public education Only by holding all students to the same high standards can we ensure that all have the same opportunity to live up to their full potential Socioculturally Responsive Assessment Randy E. Bennett,Linda Darling-Hammond,Aneesha Badrinarayan,2025-05-01 Socioculturally Responsive Assessment assembles the best available thinking from within and outside the educational measurement community about the theoretical foundations and systems level policy implications of formal assessment programs designed to be socioculturally responsive Synthesized from culturally responsive assessment design and practices culturally relevant pedagogy and funds of knowledge universal design for learning the learning sciences and other literatures this emerging concept affirms that students learning and performance is inextricably tied to the social cultural and linguistic contexts in which they live and develop knowledge Across four sections this book provides an argument and initial evidence for impact on students users and assessment quality offers guidance for implementation and examines the potential limitations pitfalls barriers and measurement issues that such programs will inevitably raise Scholars teaching faculty test developers and policymakers will come away with integral foundations new assessment approaches and a greater sense of the potential for positive impact that these assessments may afford

Digital Governance Michael E. Milakovich, 2012-04-23 The application of digital information and communication technologies ICTs to reform governmental structures politics and public administration is widely and perhaps naively viewed as the twenty first century savior the enlightened way to reinvigorate democracy and improve the quality of citizen services In this timely and thorough analysis Michael Milakovich examines the assumptions underlying the e government revolution in light of the financial exigencies facing many commercial enterprises governments and other organizations Computer driven information and communications technologies are impacting all aspects of public sector service delivery worldwide and many governments are moving away from an agency centric toward a more citizen centric approach to offering online services This book explores the transition from electronic government e gov to digital or d governance emphasizing the importance of citizen participation and information technology to accomplish the change The chapters concentrate on strategies for public administration organizational transformation and their implications for improved and measurable government performance Digital self governance is a broader umbrella term referring to the networked extension of ICT relationships to include faster access to the web mobile service delivery networking teleconferencing and use of multi channel information technologies to accomplish higher level two way transactions The shift from bureaucracy centered to customer centric service orientation is viewed as a means to restore public trust and improve service quality Digital governance is the next step for governments at all levels to reduce costs meet citizen expectations and achieve economic recovery goals Independent Schools Yearbook 2012-2013 none, 2013-06-20 The highly respected book of reference of sought after Independent Schools in membership of the Independent Schools Council s Associations HMC GSA The Society of Heads IAPS ISA and COBIS College and University , 2002 81 Questions for Parents Kristen J.
