Fearless Dialogues Gregory C. Ellison II, 2017-11-10 Drawing on all the community's collective voices from doctors to drug dealers Fearless Dialogues is a groundbreaking program that seeks real solutions to problems of chronic unemployment violence and hopelessness In cities around the United States and now the world the program's founder Gregory C Ellison and his team create conversations among community members who have never spoken to one another the goal of which are real implementable and lasting changes to the life of the community These community transformations are based on both face to

Disability & the Politics of Education Susan Lynn Gabel, Scot Danforth, 2008 Disability and the Politics of Education An International Reader is a rich resource that deals comprehensively with the many aspects of the complex topic of disability studies in education For nearly two decades global attention has been given to education as a human right through global initiatives such as Education for All EFA and the Salamanca Statement Yet according to UNESCO reaching the goals of EFA remains one of the most daunting challenges facing the global community Today millions of the world's disabled children cannot obtain a basic childhood education particularly in countries with limited resources Even in the wealthiest countries many disabled children and youth are educationally segregated from the nondisabled particularly if they are labeled with significant cognitive impairment International agencies such as the United Nations and the World Bank have generated funds for educational development but unfortunately these funds are administered with the assumption that west is best thereby urging developing countries to mimic educational policies in the United States and the United Kingdom in order to prove their aid worthiness This McDonaldization of education reproduces the labeling resource allocation and social dynamics long criticized in disability studies The authors in this volume explore these subjects and other complexities of disability and the politics of education In doing so they demonstrate the importance and usefulness of international perspectives and comparative approaches

Harroff, Jea Sophia Oh, 2021-12-27 Suffering and Evil in Nature Comparative Responses from Ecstatic Naturalism and Healing Cultures edited by Joseph E Harroff and Jea Sophia Oh provides many unique experiments in thinking through the implications of ecstatic naturalism This collection of essays directly addresses the importance of values sustaining cultures of healing and offers a variety of perspectives inducing radical hope requisite for cultivating moral and political imaginings of democracy to come as a regulative ideal Through its invocation of healing cultures the collection foregrounds the significance of the active gerundive and processual nature of ecstatic naturalism as a creative horizon for realizing values of intersubjective flourishing while also highlighting the significance of culture as an always unfinished project of making discursive interpretive and ethical space open for the subaltern and voiceless Each contribution gives voice to the tensions and contradictions felt by living participants in emergent communities of interpretation namely those who risk replacing authoritarian tendencies and fascist prejudices with a faith in future oriented archetypes of healing to make possible truth and reconciliation between oppressor and oppressed victimizers and victims of violence and trauma These essays then let loose the radical hope of healing from suffering in a ceaseless community of communication within a horizon of creative democratic interpretation

Frame of the Marginal Vaishali Naik Reason and Rebellion in Feminism Shashi Deshpande The Sense of Brown José Esteban Muñoz, 2020-08-24 The Sense of Brown is José Esteban Muñoz's treatise on brownness and being as well as his most direct address to queer Latinx studies. In this book, which he was completing at the time of his death, Muñoz examines the work of playwrights Ricardo Bracho and Nilo Cruz, artists Nao Bustamante, Isaac Julien, and Tania Bruguera, and singer José Feliciano among others, arguing for a sense of brownness that is not fixed within the racial and national contours of Latinidad. This sense of brown is not about the individualized brown subject; rather, it demonstrates that for brown peoples, being exists within what Muñoz calls the brown commons, a lifeworld, queer ecology, and form of collectivity. In analyzing minoritarian affect, ethnicity as a structure of feeling, and brown feelings as they emerge in and through art and performance, Muñoz illustrates how the sense of brown serves as the basis for other ways of knowing and being in the world. Dizzy Worms

Michael Holman, 2012-02-15 Charity Mupanga, the resilient and maternal proprietor of Harrods International Bar and Nightspot, faces her toughest challenge in Dizzy Worms, the final novel in Michael Holman's acclaimed trilogy set in the African slum of Kireba. Faced with a Health and Safety closure, Charity has a week to appeal, and the chances of success seem negligible. Elections are imminent, and Kireba is due to become a showcase of President Josiah Nduka's slum rehabilitation program, backed by gullible foreign donors. But before taking on Nduka and the council, she has a promise to keep: to provide a supply of her famous sweet doughballs to a small army of street children as voracious as they are malodorous. Michael Holman uses his witty, satirical pen to brilliant effect in this affectionate portrait of a troubled region, targeting local politicians, western diplomats, foreign donors, and journalists, puncturing pretensions and questioning the philosophy of aid.

Addressing Racism Madonna G. Constantine, Derald Wing Sue, 2006-06-27 Learn to identify and combat unintentional and overt racism. This provocative book identifies and addresses racism in mental health and educational settings, providing proven strategies for overcoming this stubborn barrier to culturally competent practice. While addressing overt forms of racism, the book also explores and sensitizes practitioners to covert and unintentional forms of racism that may be equally detrimental in denying persons of color access to unbiased, high-quality education and mental health care. Despite the dismantling of overt racist policies such as segregated schooling and the implementation of policies aimed at remedying racial inequities such as affirmative action, racism continues to persist in American society. Drs. Madonna Constantine and Derald Wing Sue, two of the leading researchers and advocates for multicultural competence, have collected sixteen thought-provoking and challenging chapters on the many ways that racism can affect a practitioner's interactions in mental health and school settings. These contributions collectively bring to the forefront highly charged issues that need to be discussed but are too often hidden away. The book is divided into four parts: What Do We Know about Racism; Racism in Mental Health Contexts; Racism in Educational Settings; Eradicating Racism: Future Directions. Faced with the responsibility of understanding multiple oppressions and the intersections of racism with sexism, classism, and heterosexism, mental health practitioners and educators must be vigilant of their personal role in perpetuating racism This collected work will help you identify forms of racism both within yourself and the systems you work in and then implement strategies to eliminate them

Homosexuality, Transsexuality, Psychoanalysis and Traditional Judaism Alan Slomowitz, Alison Feit, 2019-03-04

Homosexuality Transsexuality Psychoanalysis and Traditional Judaism explores the often incommensurable and irreconcilable beliefs and understandings of sexuality and gender in the Orthodox Jewish community from psychoanalytic rabbinic feminist and queer perspectives The book explores how seemingly irreconcilable differences might be resolved The book is divided into two separate but related sections The first highlights the divide between the psychoanalytic academic and traditional Orthodox Jewish perspectives on sexual identity and orientation and the acute psychic and social challenges faced by gay and lesbian members of the Orthodox Jewish world The contributors ask us to engage with them in a dialogue that allows for authentic conversation The second section focuses on gender identity especially as experienced by the Orthodox transgender members of the community It also highlights the divide between theories that see gender as fluid and traditional Judaism that sees gender as strictly binary The contributors write about their views and experiences from both sides of the divide They ask us to engage in true authentic dialogue about these complex and crucial emotional and religious challenges Homosexuality Transsexuality Psychoanalysis and Traditional Judaism will be of great interest to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists as well as members and leaders of Jewish communities working with LGBTQ issues
