Managing Religious Diversity in the Workplace Stefan Gröschl, Regine Bendl, 2016-03-09 Many observers propose the exclusion of all religious related aspects from organizational life others promote a more tolerant approach of certain practices symbols and ceremonies and few commentators highlight the values diverse religious beliefs and experiences that employees could bring to the organization Arguments conclusions and recommendations are often contradictory and inconclusive due to the complexity and dividing nature of religion diversity In Managing Religious Diversity in the Workplace the editors present a selection of essays conceptual papers empirical studies and case studies about how religious diversity and spirituality are managed The book explores how firms address organizational and managerial challenges deriving from the religion diverse backgrounds of their employees The different contributions discuss policies and practices how implicit and unmarked religious norms influence the managing of religious issues in organizations and what the benefits of a religion diverse workforce are It also includes contributions which address aspects of spirituality in the workplace and the role of legal frameworks and their influence on organizations and their policies and practices regarding religion diversity The perspectives and contributions include a wide range of disciplines by authors from leading academic institutions around the world

The Discarded Brick Volume 1 Emmanuel N. Mukanga, 2021-05-14 The discarded brick a three season trilogy in two volumes is set in Africa Europe and North America It is about the travels and experiences of Emmanuel N Mukanga who even in childhood would be moved to a different location every three to five years Born in the British Protectorate of Uganda the changing political and economic fortunes of his post independence homeland and region led to thousands of his country people to flee and go look for greener pastures all over the world This desire for a better and safer world is a human desire and in Europe and North America Emmanuel found people from other countries in pursuit of happiness Back home not everyone was happy to co exist with him Fears and intrigue led to a family split legal battles and irreconcilable differences He and his siblings became a pariah to be avoided like the pest The discarded Brick Born in 1953 near the shores of Lake Victoria in Eastern Uganda Emmanuel N Mukanga was plucked from his parents at the age of three and taken to the Ugandan capital Kampala At age six he was taken to a primary school near Mbale in Eastern Uganda and at age nine transferred to Entebbe former seat of the British Protectorate Government At thirteen he joined a prestigious boarding secondary school after which he went to University to study the Arts One of the reasons Idi Amin gave for expelling the 80 000 strong Indian Community from Uganda in 1972 was that they were milking the cow without feeding it which was not entirely true He who had no cow to milk did not know that he too would have to leave his country of birth He worked at Uganda Television but in 1976 he fled Idi Amin s Uganda starting an odyssey that would take him to over 26 countries in Africa Europe and North America He interacted with many cultures however when it came to a denigration of his culture at home then a clash was inevitable This awakened in him the question who are you where do you come from and what do you stand for Cultural clashes intrigue and legal battles follow He has included an epilogue reflecting on his life and existence and tracing his origins among the Samia Luhya astride Kenya and Uganda He started compiling this book in May 2009 and completed it in October 2020 during the great Covid 19 pandemic and after George Floyd said twelve times in less than 9 minutes Mama I Can t Breathe From Simple to Complex J. M. Mungai,2002 Quality Assurance in Higher Education in Eastern and Southern Africa Peter Neema-Abooki,2021-08-23 This book examines the critical aspect of quality assurance maintenance of competitive standards in African higher education It explores both the micro and macro levels of continental African higher education regulatory authorities and analyses different institutional regional and national practices for moving towards continental quality assurance approaches Contributed to by scholars across Eastern and Southern Africa the book considers conceptual practical epistemological and policy dimensions of quality and quality assurance especially in relation to higher education in Africa It therefore draws on research and local expertise to open up debate about how to assure and enhance the quality of higher education providing a comprehensive review of eight countries and considers societal challenges It aims to satisfy the need of more thoughtful and critical works on African education as produced by African educators The uniqueness of this book lies in integrating both the theoretical and practical dimensions of quality to devise appropriate strategies for ensuring quality and standards in higher education in continental Africa and beyond This authoritative book advocates for a timely discussion around the provision of good quality higher education and research in African universities and will be of great interest to academics policy makers researchers and post graduate students in the fields of higher education comparative education and African studies Development and Administration of Education in Uganda J. C. Ssekamwa,S. M. E. Lugumba,2001 This second title in the Fountain series in Education Studies assesses the structures role and practices of government administration in the development of education in Uganda from 1900 1970 a period which has seen drastic changes in administrative and school set ups and movement towards an almost unrecognisable present day system Part one presents an overview part two looks at the development of teacher training and examination institutions since 1900 part three analyses structures at the level of government ministries district education and school authorities and student participation in the processes Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,2006-12-06 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda Musingafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando,Hungwe, Chipso,2024-01-16 Within academic circles there is a longstanding issue concerning the portrayal and understanding of African womanhood Frequently these narratives are crafted by outsiders predominantly Western scholars often distorting the lived experiences and unique perspectives of African women This has led to a skewed and sometimes negative perception of African women reinforcing stereotypes and sidelining their voices in critical discussions Moreover this misrepresentation has real world consequences

as it impacts social justice initiatives and development projects that rely on misguided narratives rather than the authentic voices of African women African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda emerges as an essential solution to the misrepresentation of African women This comprehensive and meticulously researched book offers an alternative narrative one that is rooted in African perspectives and experiences It addresses the historical cultural and political dimensions of African womanhood providing a rich and nuanced understanding of this multifaceted topic Bridging the Knowledge Divide Stewart Marshall,Wanjira Kinuthia,Wallace Taylor,2009-04-01 In many international settings developing economies are in danger of declining as the digital divide becomes the knowledge divide This decline attacks the very fabric of cohesion and purpose for these regional societies delivering increased social health economic and sustainability problems The examples in this book will provide leaders policy developers researchers students and community with successful strategies and principles of ICT use in education to address these needs This book will discuss how educational technology can be used to transform education and assist developing communities to close the knowledge divide It will provide comprehensive coverage of educational technology in development in different professions and parts of world The book will provide examples of best practice case studies and principles for educators community leaders researchers and policy advisers on the use of educational technology for development In particular it will provide examples of how education can be provided more flexibly in order to provide access to hitherto disadvantaged communities and individuals Arise ,2003 Student Culture and Identity in Higher Education Shahriar, Ambreen,Syed, Ghazal Kazim,2017-03-27 The pursuit of higher education has become increasingly popular among students of many different backgrounds and cultures As these students embark on higher learning it is imperative for educators and universities to be culturally sensitive to their differing individualities Student Culture and Identity in Higher Education is an essential reference publication including the latest scholarly research on the impact that gender nationality and language have on educational systems Featuring extensive coverage on a broad range of topics and perspectives such as internationalization intercultural competency and gender equity this book is ideally designed for students researchers and educators seeking current research on the cultural issues students encounter while seeking higher education
