Ryan Gunderson, 2021-10-29 What is to be done when the future is already ablaze With the international spread of right wing populism widening inequalities precarious forms of labor becoming normative surveillance capitalism and a worsening ecological crisis the future is bleak One issue in particular the likelihood of catastrophic climate change coupled with the lack of a global movement with the organization and vision to effectively challenge our suicidal social order yields the crushing awareness that future generations will be trapped in prehistory one in which humanity continues to be dominated by its own creations instead of shaping the historical process in line with reason Expanding upon the ideas of Theodor W Adorno Ernst Bloch Lucien Goldmann and others Ryan Gunderson examines the modes of action and thought through which we react to the likelihood of a catastrophic future in ways that reproduce instead of challenge the status quo and how we can instead productively sustain the search for a better world against all odds The Already Dead Eric Cazdyn, 2012-04-16 This book considers how a culture of crisis management what Cazdyn calls the new chronic has come to dominate all aspects of contemporary life from biomedicine to economics to politics Drawing from his own experiences battling leukemia and the subsequent effects of his illness on the process of becoming a Canadian citizen Cazdyn unravels the logic of the new chronic where people find themselves suspended in a space between life and death Character and Dystopia Aaron S. Rosenfeld, 2020-07-08 This is the first extended study to specifically focus on character in dystopia Through the lens of the last man figure Character and Dystopia: The Last Men examines character development in Yevgeny Zamyatin's We Anthony Burgess's A Clockwork Orange Kazuo Ishiguro's Never Let Me Go Fyodor Dostoevsky's Notes from Underground George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty-Four Nathanael West's A Cool Million David Mamet's Glengarry Glen Ross Octavia Butler's Parable of the Sower Lois Lowry's The Giver Michel Houellebecq's Submission Chan Koonchung's The Fat Years and Maggie Shen King's An Excess Male showing how in the 20th and 21st centuries dystopian nostalgia shades into reactionary humanism a last stand mounted in defense of forms of subjectivity no longer supported by modernity Unlike most work on dystopia that emphasizes dystopia's politics this book's approach grows out of questions of poetics What are the formal structures by which dystopian character is constructed How do dystopian characters operate differently than other characters within texts and upon the reader What is the relation between this character and other forms of literary character such as are found in romantic and modernist texts By reading character as crucial to the dystopian project the book makes a case for dystopia as a sensitive register of modern anxieties about subjectivity and its portrayal in literary works Utopia Matters Marinela Freitas, 2005 The Language of Dystopia Jessica Norledge, 2022-08-29 This book presents an extended account of the language of dystopia exploring the creativity and style of dystopian narratives and mapping the development of the genre from its early origins through to contemporary practice Drawing upon stylistic cognitive poetic and narratological approaches the work proposes a stylistic profile of dystopia arguing for a reader led discussion of genre that takes into account reader subjectivity and personal conceptualisations of prototypicality In examining and identifying those aspects of language that characterise dystopian narratives and the experience of reading dystopian fictions the work discusses in particular the manipulation and construction of dystopian languages the conceptualisation of dystopian worlds the reading of dystopian minds the projection of dystopian ethics the unreliability of dystopian refraction and the evolution and hybridity of the dystopian genre Teaching the Canon in 21st Century Classrooms Michael Macaluso,Kati Macaluso,2018-11-01 The canon as much an ideology as it is a body of texts perceived to be intrinsic to the high school English classroom has come under scrutiny for maintaining status quo narratives about whiteness masculinity heterosexuality ability and even those associated with American ideals of self reliance the good life and the self made man Teaching practices around these texts may also reinforce harmful practices and ways of thinking including those connected to notions of culture literary merit and methods of reading teaching and learning Teaching the Canon in 21st Century Classrooms offers innovative critical ways of reading thinking about and teaching canonical texts in 21st century classrooms Responding to the increasingly pluralized digitized global 21st century English classroom chapter authors make explicit the ideologies of a canonical text of focus while also elaborating a pedagogical approach that de centers the canon bridges past and present applies critical theory and celebrates the rich identities of 21st century readers In using this book teachers will be especially poised to take on the canon in their classroom and thus to open up their curricula to ideas values concerns and narratives beyond those embedded in the canonical texts Imagining Urban Complexity Frans-Willem Korsten,Anthony T. Albright,2024-07-30 Imagining Urban Complexity introduces passionate and critical perspectives on the link between the humanities and urban studies It emphasizes tropes media and genres as cultural techniques that shape complexity in urban environments by distributing affordances modes of sensing and modes of sense making Focusing on urban political and cultural dynamics in 24 global cities the book shows that urban environments are thematized in literature and art but are also entities that are shaped perceived interpreted and experienced through sense making techniques that have long been central concerns of the humanities These techniques the book argues activate a dialectic between urban imaginations and cancellations Tropes media and genres are aesthetically and politically powerful they propel imaginations and open up multiplicities of urban possibilities they naturalize actualized orders and they cancel alternatives The book moves between close readings of city spaces and more systemic and infrastructural approaches to urban environments providing tools and strategies that can be adapted and extended to understand urban complexity in different cultural and political contexts The book speaks to global audiences from a continental philosophical tradition It is relevant to undergraduates postgraduates and academic researchers in the fields of critical urban studies urban design comparative literature cultural studies cultural analysis ecocriticism political theory and ethics From Film Adaptation to Post-Celluloid Adaptation Costas Constandinides,2010-10-21 The main corpus of film adaptation thus far has focused on films based on canonical literature From Film Adaptation to Post Celluloid Adaptation takes the next logical step by discussing the emerging modes of film adaptation from older media to new mainly focusing on the computer generated reconstructions of popular narratives and characters along with other forms of convergence such as the Internet While New Media is a broad concept the book will concentrate on the ways digital technology is being used in the encoding of films and discuss the ways this shift can be debated from a theoretical perspective Though the discussion is framed through the new media lens the work will not exclude a broader understanding of New Media which refers to video games official websites and interactivity so as to examine how the visual style of contemporary films is dispersed across and influenced by other media Discussing films like Minority Report King Kong 300 and Wanted in relation to Film Adaptation theory the work aims to challenge and rework the definition of adaptation Autonomous Driving Markus Maurer,J. Christian Gerdes,Barbara Lenz,Hermann

The Science Fiction Film in Contemporary Hollywood Evdokia Stefanopoulou, 2023-07-27 The Science Fiction Film in Contemporary Hollywood focuses on the American science fiction SF film during the period 2001 2020 in order to provide a theoretical mapping of the genre in the context of Conglomerate Hollywood Using a social semiotics approach in a systematic corpus of films the book argues that the SF film can be delineated by two semiotic squares the first one centering on the genre's more than human ontologies SF bodies and the second one focusing on its imaginative worlds SF worlds Based on this theoretical framework the book examines the genre in six cycles which are placed in their historical context and are analyzed in relation to cultural discourses such as technological embodiment race animal human relations environmentalism global capitalism and the techno scientific Empire By considering these cycles which include superhero films creature films space operas among others as expressions of the genre's basic oppositions the book facilitates the comparison and juxtaposition of films that have rarely been discussed in tandem offering a new perspective on the multiple articulations of the SF film in the new millennium Pre-crime Jude
