Mark Twain's Literary Resources
Alan Gribben, 2024-10-15 Dr. Alan Gribben, a foremost Twain scholar, made waves in 1980 with the publication of Mark Twain's Library, a study that exposed for the first time the breadth of Twain's reading and influences. Prior to Gribben's work, much of Twain's reading history was assumed lost, but through dogged searching, Gribben was able to source much of Twain's library. Mark Twain's Literary Resources is a much-expanded examination of Twain's library and readings. Volume I included Gribben's reflections on the work involved in cataloging Twain's reading and analysis of Twain's influences and opinions. This volume, long-awaited, is an in-depth and comprehensive accounting of Twain's literary history. Each work read or owned by Twain is listed along with information pertaining to editions, locations, and more. Gribben also includes scholarly annotations that explain the significance of many works, making this volume of Mark Twain's Literary Resources one of the most important additions to our understanding of America's greatest author. The Construction of Testimony, Erin McGlothlin, Brad Prager, Markus Zisselsberger, 2020-04-21 Scholars and students of film studies and Holocaust studies will value this close analysis. Who's who in America, 1923 American Women Speak, Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2016-10-24 This A to Z compendium explores more than 150 American women activists from colonial times to the present, examining their backgrounds and the focus of their activism and providing examples of their speeches. Throughout history, American women's oratory has crusaded for religious rights, abolitionism, and peace, as well as for Zionism, immigration, and immunization. This text examines more than 150 influential American women activists and their speeches on vital issues. Each entry outlines the speaker's motivation and provides examples of their speeches in context, supplying information about the setting, audience, reception, and lasting historical significance. This collection of women's speeches emphasizes primary sources that underscore the goals of the Common Core Standards Entries support classroom discussion on a range of topics from women's suffrage and birth control to civil rights and 20th and 21st century labor law No other reference work compiles examples of female activism and oration across a 400 year span of history along with analysis of the speaker's intent forum listeners and public and media response Annual Report of the Regents University of the State of New York,1897 No 104 117 contain also the Regents bulletins Annual Report New York State Library,1894 Principles, Practices, and Creative Tensions in Progressive Higher Education Katherine Jelly,Alan Mandell,2017-03-23 In this multi faceted case study of one progressive institution of adult higher education the editors and contributors to the volume lay out significant challenges confronting not just non traditional post secondary colleges and universities but all institutions of higher education in today's rapidly changing context Contending that nontraditional institutions are especially challenged in these turbulent times they argue that these organizations distinctive academic programs are among the most threatened in the landscape of higher education today The 19 essays that make up this volume highlight and examine key creative tensions rich interplays of emphases and values in higher education in order to illuminate and address more intentionally the questions that we must address Can we make constructive use of these tensions Can we recognize what is at stake And can we chart a course that will both respond innovatively to rapid change and sustain a vision and the purposes and principles on which that vision rests Taken as a whole this volume sheds light on the questions and creative tensions that can with thoughtful attention help to keep an alternative progressive vision of adult higher education alive Report New York State Library,1894
