This D&G is about Hammurabi and his 282 harsh laws and if they were just.

About 4,000 years ago a man named Hammurabi became king of Babylonia. There is little known about his personal life. Hammurabi ruled for 42 years for the first 30 years his control was limited mostly to the city of Babylonia . that changed however he became the ruler of Mesopotamia.

There are 3 categories the 282 laws fit into the family law , the property law, and the personal injury law, there are only 30 laws out of the 282 that has the death penalty. Most of the laws are just because if a man knocks a free man's eye out he shall be knocked out to and to if he knocks out a slave's eye he should pay half its value is fair because they aren't as important as a free man. That is an example of being just.

Hammurabi had ordered a black diorite stele over 3 feet tall to be carved in cuneiform of the Hammurabi code of laws so now do you think Hammurabi code was just?
