Nationalism and History Education Rachel Hutchins,2016-02-26 History education by nature transmits an official version of national identity National identity is not a fixed entity and controversy over history teaching is an essential part of the process of redefining and regenerating the nation France and the United States have in particular experienced demographic and cultural shifts since the 1960s that have resulted in intense debates over national identity This volume examines how each country s national history is represented in primary schools social studies textbooks and curricula and how they handle contemporary issues of ethnicity diversity gender socio economic inequality and patriotism By analyzing each country separately and comparatively it demonstrates how various groups including academics politicians and citizen activists have influenced education and how the process of writing and rewriting history perpetuates a nation Drawing on empirical studies of the United States and France this volume provides insight into broader nationalist processes and instructive principles for similar countries in the modern world Social Studies Curriculum Resource Handbook ,1992 Horizons, Grade 3 Daily Reading Support for Social Studies Hsp,2003-12-01 The Edutainer Brad Johnson,Tammy Maxson McElroy,2010-04-16

The teacher s role must be redefined to meet the needs and demands of today s culture and the edutainer is the paradigm shift needed for education to be relevant applicable and effective in the 21st Century The Edutainer describes an educational approach that provides teachers with core operational and interpersonal skills to be an effective educator in the twenty first century These skills include communication organization management planning and building authentic relationships based upon respect and personal responsibility The Edutainer is unique in its perspective that the educator should be fluid and adapting to our current culture while employing sound academic principles The edutainer concept is derived from the principles that we believe make for an effective educator and entertainer First edutainers are visionaries who understand that a change in culture requires a change in methods and presentation These edutainers make their material relevant to present culture Preparation is also vital to these performers They organize and plan their material long before they get on stage or their performance would fail Finally the effective educator and entertainer have to deliver a stellar performance that is relatable to the audience The Edutainer offers strategies and ideas to build and nurture authentic relationships with students parents and colleagues to build a dynamic educational community Suggestions for developing the 3R s of education which include respect responsibility and authentic relationships Explanations of present day cultural influences upon formal education and learning Strategies for teacher empowerment and leadership abilities Methodologies for classroom management and organization Ideas for connecting education to the real world with relevant and engaging lessons
