

Ancient Greek Culture

Directions: After reading about Greek culture, list and describe the characteristics of Greek art during each period.

Archaic period	During the Archaic period, Greek sculptures all looked very similar. Greek artists depicted famous men and gods in ordinary positions.
Classical period	During the Classical period, Greek artists showed people in action poses and more natural positions. Many famous Greek sculptures come from the Classical Period of Ancient Greece.
Hellenistic period	After the Greek Empire conquered Asian lands, the Hellenistic period saw more changes in Greek Art. Greek art included more women and children instead of only famous Greek men and Greek gods and goddesses. Greek artists never showed realistic versions of people. Instead, Greek artists focused on humans in perfect form with no imperfections.
