The Shattered Mirror María Elena de Valdés, 2010-07-05 Popular images of women in Mexico conveyed through literature and more recently film and television were long restricted to either the stereotypically submissive wife and mother or the demonized fallen woman But new representations of women and their roles in Mexican society have shattered the ideological mirrors that reflected these images This book explores this major change in the literary representation of women in Mexico Mar a Elena de Vald s enters into a selective and hard-hitting examination of literary representation in its social context and a contestatory engagement of both the literary text and its place in the social reality of Mexico Some of the topics she considers are Carlos Fuentes and the subversion of the social codes for women the poetic ties between Sor Juana In s de la Cruz and Octavio Paz questions of female identity in the writings of Rosario Castellanos Luisa Josefina Hernández Mar a Luisa Puga and Elena Poniatowska the Chicana writing of Sandra Cisneros and the postmodern celebration without reprobation of being a woman in Laura Esquivel's Like Water for
