lifetime As well each diverges from others in ways that have profoundly shaped our generic conceptions and collectively they represent the four most innovative practitioners of the past half century with the arguable exception of Raymond Carver Yet in an era when writing programs The New Yorker and distinguished journals all promulgate the short story it remains relatively under examined as a major literary form We continue to argue about what a story inherently is ignoring how differences among practitioners enliven the field Dubus Munro Williams and Davis each defy critical efforts to identify the story form s presumed constitution marked by a supposedly special shape or requisite length or distinct narrative trajectory And the very contrast among their efforts reveals the expansiveness of the genre though few have taken such a cross glancing interpretive approach This volume opens up discussion shifting from close analysis into larger speculation about possibilities established by the most innovative writers in their later work

"But God Raised Him from the Dead" Kevin Anderson, 2007-02-01 But God Raised Him from the Dead is the first comprehensive study of Jesus resurrection in Luke Acts Through wide sweeping research and detailed exegesis Dr Anderson supports the claim that the resurrection of Jesus is the focus of the message of salvation in Luke Acts The study situates Luke s resurrection theology within Jewish and Hellenistic conceptions of the afterlife and addresses critical questions in Lukan studies such as the relationship between resurrection ascension and exaltation and the vital linkage between Jesus resurrection the hope of Israel and the final resurrection of the dead But God Raised Him from the Dead demonstrates how the resurrection of Messiah Jesus is indispensable to the major theological dimensions of Luke s narrative of God s saving action Jesus resurrection is a key component in the divine plan to raise up the Savior for Israel to extend God s saving benefits to the ends of the earth and to guarantee the complete fulfillment of the hope of Israel and salvation of the people of God at the final resurrection of the dead
