Faces of Love, 2012

Hafez in Love Iraj Pezeshkzad, 2021-05-31 Shams al Din Mohammad Hafez is in love He is in love with a girl with a city and with Persian poetry Despite his enmity with the new and dangerous city leader the jealousy of his fellow court poets and the competition for his beloved Iran's favorite poet remains unbothered When his wit and charm are not enough to keep him safe in Shiraz his friends conspire to keep him out of trouble But their schemes are unsuccessful Nothing will chase Hafez from this city of wine and roses In Pezeshkzad's fictional account Hafez's life in fourteenth century Shiraz is a mix of peril and humor Set in a city that is at once beautiful and cutthroat the novel includes a cast of historical figures to illuminate this elusive poet of the Persian literary tradition Shabani Jadidi and Higgins's translation brings the beloved poetry of Hafez alive for an English audience and reacquaints readers with the comic wit and original storytelling of Pezeshkzad

Sound at the Edge of Perception Seán Street, 2018-07-16 This book is about the tiny sounds of the world and listening to them the minute signals that are clues to who and where we are A very small sound given the context of its history becomes hugely significant and even an imagined sound in a picture becomes almost a voice By speaking a name we give a person back to the world and a breath a sigh a laugh or a cry need no language A phoneme is the start of all stories and were we able to tune ourselves to the subtleties of the natural world we might share the super sensitivity of members of the bird and animal kingdom to sense the message in the apparent silence Mind hears sound when it perceives an image the book will appeal to sonic and radio practitioners students of sound those working in the visual arts and creative writers

religion that resists the juggernaut of alcohol consumption In many Islamic countries alcohol is banned in others it plays little role in social life Yet Muslims throughout history did drink often to excess whether sultans and shahs in their palaces or commoners in taverns run by Jews or Christians This evocative study delves into drinking s many historic literary and social manifestations in Islam going beyond references to hypocrisy or the temptations of forbidden fruit Rudi Matthee argues that alcohol through its absence as much as its presence takes us to the heart of Islam Exploring the long history of this faith from the eighth century Umayyad dynasty to Erdogan s Turkey and from Islamic Spain to modern Pakistan he unearths a tradition of diversity and multiplicity in which Muslims drank and found myriad excuses to do so They celebrated wine and used it as a poetic metaphor even viewing alcohol as a gift from God the key to unlocking eternal truth Drawing on a plethora of sources Matthee presents Islam not as an austere and uncompromising faith but as a set of beliefs and practices that embrace ambivalence allowing for ambiguity and even contradiction

the world we re entering Taken together these eighty titles offer us fresh perspective on enduring problems from the social consequences of epidemics to the rising inequality that Thomas More designed Utopia to combat as well as the patriarchal structures within and against which many of these books heroines have to struggle from the work of Murasaki Shikibu a millennium ago to Margaret Atwood today Around the World in 80 Books is a global invitation to look beyond ourselves and our surroundings and to see our world and its literature in new ways

The Beloved in Middle Eastern Literatures

Alireza Korangy, Hanadi Al-Samman, Michael Beard, 2017-05-30 In the long literary history of the Middle East the notion of the beloved has been a central trope in both the poetry and prose of the region This book explores the concept of the beloved in a cross cultural and interdisciplinary manner revealing how shared ideas on the subject supersede geographical and temporal boundaries and ideas of nationhood The book considers the beloved in its classical modern and postmodern manifestations taking into account the different sexual orientations and forms of desire expressed From the pre Islamic Udhri romantic unrequited love to the erotic same sex love in thirteenth century poetry and prose the divine Sufi reflections on the topic and post revolutionary love encounters in Iran Egypt and Saudi Arabia The Beloved in Middle Eastern Literatures connects the affective and cultural with the political and the obscene In focusing on the diverse manifestations of love and tropes of the lover beloved binary this book is unique in foregrounding what is often regarded as a taboo subject in the region The multi faceted outlook reveals the variety of philological philosophical poetic and literary forms that treat this significant motif

Friendship in Islamic Ethics and World Politics Mohammad Jafar Amir Mahallati, 2019-11-20 Based on a decade of direct diplomatic engagement with the United Nations a decade of teaching on international relations and another decade of research and teaching on Islamic and comparative peace studies this book offers a friendship related academic framework that examines shared moral concepts philosophical paradigms and political experiences that can develop and expand multidisciplinary conversations between the Christian West and the Muslim East By advancing multicultural and interreligious discourses on friendship this book helps promote actual friendships among diverse cultures and peoples This is not a monologue It provides a model of conversations among scholars and political actors who come from diverse international and interreligious backgrounds The word Islamic should not mislead the reader to suspect that this edited volume delves only into religious discourses Rather it provides a forum for conversations within and between religious and philosophical perspectives It sparks friendship conversations thematically and through disciplinary and cultural diversity The result of the work of many prominent international scholars and diplomats over many years it conveys at least one message clearly friendship matters for not only our happiness but also for our survival

Love in Another Language Dick

Davis, 2017-11-30 In Love in Another Language Dick Davis is shown to be the outstanding formal poet of his generation a master of rhyme and metre a poet worthy of keeping company with the best lyric writers in our tradition His Collected Poems draws on eight previous publications and includes a section of new work Davis has also established himself as the leading translator of Persian literature in our time Washington Post and this volume includes a selection of his celebrated translations Davis's original poems evoke the experiences of travel and of living in a culture in which one is a stranger where empathy is at once difficult and necessary His translations can be read as a record of his attempts at such empathy in poetic terms across centuries and cultures

Song Beyond the Nation Philip Ross Bullock, Laura Tunbridge, 2021-05-20 This book challenges that assumption by exploring the ways in which song crosses national borders Whether by incorporating foreign canons of poetry alongside native ones or conveying literature across linguistic borders through acts of performance song functions as a means of translation

Granada Steven Nightingale, 2015-02-12 Yearning for a change Steven Nightingale took his family to live in the ancient Andaluc an city of Granada But as he journeyed through its hidden courtyards scented gardens and sun warmed plazas Steven discovered that Granada's present cannot be separated from its past and began an eight year quest to discover more Where once Christians Muslims and Jews lived peacefully together and the arts and sciences flourished Granada also witnessed brutality places of worship razed to the ground books burned massacre and anarchy In the 1600s the once populous city was reduced to 6 000 who lived among rubble In the next three centuries the deterioration worsened and the city became a refuge for anarchists then during the Spanish Civil War fascism took hold Literary and sensual Steven Nightingale produces a portrait of a now thriving city and the joy he discovered there revealing the resilience and kindness of its people the resonance of its gardens and architecture the wonders of the Alhambra and the cyclical nature of darkness and light in the history of Andaluc a At once personal and far reaching Granada is an epic journey through the soul of this most iconic of cities
