

The document that follows is a sample policy and procedures manual for collegiate chapters. This sample is designed to help the chapter format its own policies and procedures, and it is not a requirement that chapters follow any of the specific sample policies. The chapter may choose to use some of these policies exactly as stated, but should make necessary changes to fit the needs of the chapter and to follow any university policies. Main topics/titles should be listed in alphabetical order to help ease of use and comparison between chapters for leaders and Central Office staff. Below is a list of items that would be helpful to place in the chapter's policies and procedures manual, most of which are also contained in the following sample:

- Attendance
 - Required chapter events
 - Any additional attendance policies
- Awards
 - National
 - Responsible for submission and help with submission
 - Guidelines to follow
 - Chapter- Specific awards given every year
- Bylaws
 - National Bylaws, Article X. Section 2 and National Policies, Section B. Policy 1
 - The Chancellor is responsible for updating chapter bylaws
 - Bylaws will be reviewed by the chapter and submitted to Central Office by November 15th every year
- Chapter Management Program responsibilities
 - Who is responsible for submitting each item
 - When should items be submitted
- Committees

Development of Writing Skills in Children in Diverse Cultural Contexts Alina Galvão Spinillo, Carmen Sotomayor, 2023-06-16. This book brings together multiple theoretical perspectives and disciplinary approaches to study the acquisition and development of written language by children as well as the implications for teaching and learning of writing practices in a variety of languages and cultural contexts. Chapters in this contributed volume present both theoretical contributions and results of research carried out with students and teachers from 11 countries: Belgium, Brazil, Chile, Israel, Italy, Mexico, the Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, UK and USA who speak seven different languages: Portuguese, Spanish, English, Italian, French, Dutch and Hebrew. By bringing together research developed in diverse cultural contexts, it enriches the debates in the interdisciplinary field of writing studies by analyzing a wide range of topics at the interface between research and educational implications for the teaching and learning of writing by children. The book consists of five parts, each one addressing a specific set of topics. Part I presents studies on topics related to written language representation systems, phonological and morphological awareness and on the relationship between grammar and the quality of texts of different genres. Part II includes studies related to compositional processes of writing texts and the factors involved in these processes. Part III focuses on the difficulties faced by students during the acquisition and development of writing. Part IV is dedicated to chapters that discuss and compare writing practices in different social environments. Finally, chapters in part V deal with teaching and learning of writing in the school setting. Development of Writing Skills in Children in Diverse Cultural Contexts: Contributions to Teaching and Learning will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of psychology, education and linguistics as well as to other social scientists in the broader interdisciplinary field of writing studies.
