design and maintenance of modern vacuum systems Includes well referenced chapters A Reference Guide to English, American and Canadian Literature Inglis Freeman Bell, Jennifer Forbes, 1971 To anyone who has crossed the Canadian prairies the title of this book Vertical Man Horizontal World will strike a responsive chord man stands alone in seemingly limitless landscape as empty as nightmare The stark isolation of man against the prairie's landscape is so obvious the author says that except for passing comments in two studies of Canadian prairie fiction no one has made a sustained analysis of the use of the prairie in Canadian fiction or argued at any length for what most immediately unifies the literature of the prairie region Author Ricou argues that man is intimidated by the vastness which surrounds him and he will almost certainly wish to meet the challenge of this land to say Look look in whatever way he can by raising a crop or a monument by interpreting his experience in paint or words Ricou traces this recurrent theme in prairie fiction from writers such as Frederick Philip Grove and Wallace Stegner Edward McCourt and W O Mitchell to Margaret Laurence and Robert Kroetsch In tracing the relationship of man and land from the earliest writers of prairie fiction to the most recent Ricou shows how the calm and benign relationship of man and land as exemplified for instance in the fiction of Robert Stead and W O Mitchell has changed in recent novels to a more dramatic confrontation The novelists find in the landscape an ideal mirror for the dilemma and often the strength of existential man Critic Henry Keisel once wrote To conquer a piece of the continent to put one's imprint upon virgin land to say Here I am for that I came is as much a way of proving one's existence as is Descartes cogito ergo sum Vertical Man Horizontal World is an affirmation of Keisel's statement Slowly and cumulatively Ricou traces the image of man leaving his mark on the empty sometimes nightmarish land of the Canadian prairie How do we fit our time and our place is a question posed by all the writers Ricou examines The answer he says at this point in the evolution of Canadian prairie fiction delivered with conviction is abruptly and uneasily but brazenly and delightedly This book is a sustained and penetrating look at the interrelationship of man and landscape in Canadian prairie fiction Key Topics in Landscape Ecology Jianguo Wu, Richard J. Hobbs, 2007-03-29 Landscape ecology is a relatively new area of study which aims to understand the pattern of interaction of biological and cultural communities within a landscape This book brings together leading figures from the field to provide an up to date survey of recent advances identify key research problems and suggest a future direction for development and expansion of knowledge Providing in depth reviews of the principles and methods for understanding landscape patterns and changes the book illustrates concepts with examples of innovative applications from different parts of the world Forming a current state of the science for the science of landscape ecology this book forms an essential reference for graduate students academics professionals and practitioners in ecology environmental science natural resource management and landscape planning and design Crisis and Conflict in Agriculture Rami Zurayk, Eckart Woertz, Rachel Bahn, 2018-09-18 This volume sets out to explore the dialectic relating agriculture crisis and conflict and attempts to expand the knowledge on these interactions Part 1 of the volume chapters 1-6 discusses thematic issues and methodological approaches to understanding the intersection of agriculture crisis and conflict Part 2 chapters 7 20 provides case studies that take a detailed approach to understanding agricultural contexts facing crisis and conflict or the role played by agriculture within crisis and conflict Studies are selected from areas that might be expected to feature in such a volume the Middle East and North Africa sub Saharan Africa South and Southeast Asia and Latin America as well as less obvious regions where conflict within agriculture refers not to widespread violence or wars but rather latent or simmering crisis Central Asia and Europe Crises stemming from politically driven violence natural disasters and climate change are covered as well as competition over resources
