GEOGRAPHY, 2008 Human Geographies of Stellenbosch Ronnie Donaldson, 2021-02-11 Amid a growing turn towards Southern cities South African urban geographers continue to remind us why and how to attend to local context and draw on theory from elsewhere Human Geographies of Stellenbosch Transforming Space Preserving Place edited by Ronnie Donaldson provides a deep look at crucial questions facing one of South Africa's most well known town cities Written from years of local knowledge by scholars at Stellenbosch University this volume asks what urban transformation means who it is for and the politically tantalising question of whether and how we might hold on to some of the old while aspiring towards the new In a global context in which we are all searching for how to justly remember our messy past how to decolonise and hold onto what makes places unique this volume will be of interest to scholars asking such questions in and beyond urban studies

States of Disease Brian King, 2017-01-03 Human health is shaped by the interactions between social and ecological systems States of Disease advances a social ecology of health framework to demonstrate how historical spatial formations contribute to contemporary vulnerabilities to disease and the possibilities for health justice The book examines how managed HIV in South Africa is being transformed with expanded access to antiretroviral therapy and how environmental health in northern Botswana is shifting due to global climate change and flooding variability These cases demonstrate how the political environmental context shapes the ways in which health is embodied experienced and managed Provided by publisher

International Logistics Management A. Mert AYKOR, 2023-07-31 International Supply Chain Management A. Mert AYKOR, 2025-02-13 International Warehouse Management A. Mert AYKOR, 2024-03-06 Global Area Disturbed

and Pressures on Biodiversity by Large-Scale Metal Mining Diego I. Murguía, 2015 The rising global demand for metals in a context of declining ore grades is driving the opening of new mines and the expansion of existing ones disturbing substantial land areas especially by open pits However how much land is currently disturbed globally How much land could be disturbed by metal mining in 2050 This study investigates the global area disturbed by mining of iron bauxite copper gold and silver for the first time The first part consists of the calculation of the specific land requirements i.e. the area newly disturbed caused by the ore extraction at the mine site The second part addresses the global area disturbed in the year 2011 whereas the third presents scenarios of how such area might evolve until 2050 The last part addresses the current and future pressures on global biodiversity by metal mines and shows possibilities for the future opening of new mines in low biodiversity areas alleviating pressures in high biodiversity ones This study presents the findings of the author's dissertation hoping they are used as a frame to develop policies and incentives to reduce the amount of area directly disturbed by mines and their pressures on biodiversity Biodiversity across Afri-montane Environments David Horák,Vincent Ralph Clark, Kevin Y. Njabo, Jon Fjeldså, Vincent Deblauwe, 2023-02-13 The Geopolitics of Regional Power Sören Scholvin, 2016-03-09 In the last two decades various states from the Global South have emerged as important players in international relations Most popular among them is China Brazil India and South Africa have also taken essential roles in global and regional politics Compared to traditional great powers they can be labelled regional great powers or regional powers because their influence is with the exception of China concentrated on their neighbourhood The impact of regions meaning the impact of geography on the economics and politics of regional powers is surprisingly understudied This book analyses how geographical conditions influence the regional economics and politics of South Africa allowing the author to delineate its region of influence Secondary Cities and Development Lochner Marais, Etienne Nel, Ronnie Donaldson, 2016-05-20 The role secondary cities play in the global space economy and national urban hierarchies is increasingly receiving attention from scholars and international agencies most notably the Cities Alliance Secondary Cities and Development considers the role of secondary cities through the lens of South Africa a middle income country with characteristics of both the developed and developing worlds This book brings together a broad overview of international literature on secondary cities in South Africa and mirrors them against global experience Chapters emphasize the importance of secondary cities as regional services areas their potential roles in rural development the vulnerabilities to which they are prone and their significant potential By means of review six South African case studies and an assessment of contemporary policy approaches towards these cities this unique volume provides insight into a spectrum of globally significant challenges This book would be of interest to academics and policy makers working in urban studies or regional development Smart Computing Applications in Crowdfunding Bo Xing, Tshilidzi Marwala, 2018-12-07 The book focuses on smart computing for crowdfunding usage looking at the crowdfunding landscape e g reward donation equity P2P based and the crowdfunding ecosystem e g regulator asker backer investor and operator The increased complexity of fund raising scenario driven by the broad economic environment as well as the need for using alternative funding sources has sparked research in smart computing techniques Covering a wide range of detailed topics the authors of this book offer an outstanding overview of the current state of the art providing deep insights into smart computing methods tools and their applications in crowdfunding exploring the importance of smart analysis prediction and decision making within the fintech industry This book is intended to be an authoritative and valuable resource for professional practitioners and researchers alike as well as finance engineering and computer science students who are interested in crowdfunding and other emerging fintech topics Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing Betty Rolling Ferrell, Judith A.
