Engish P1 Memorandum September 2013

Ellen Elias-Bursac

Engish P1 Memorandum September 2013:

History Continues Sabri Kicmari,2022-12-07 Decades after Francis Fukuyama's end of history thesis became famous the conflicts and turmoil of history have returned Dr Kicmari having seen his own native land erupt in a European civil war in the 1990s has been thinking about these issues for many years This book highlights the return of ideology to international relations presenting harsh ideological models which challenge liberal democracy This becomes even more relevant in light of the Russian invasion of Ukraine The publication of this book aims to draw attention to the danger posed to world peace by ideological models alongside the need for commitment to strengthen democracy in the world and should interest diplomats journalists and scholars

Translating Evidence and Interpreting Testimony at a War Crimes Tribunal Ellen Elias-Bursac,2015-02-17 How can defendants be tried if they cannot understand the charges being raised against them Can a witness testify if the judges and attorneys cannot understand what the witness is saying Can a judge decide whether to convict or acquit if she or he cannot read the documentary evidence The very viability of international criminal prosecution and adjudication hinges on the massive amounts of translation and interpreting that are required in order to run these lengthy complex trials and the procedures for handling the demands facing language services This book explores the dynamic courtroom interactions in the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia in which witnesses testify through an interpreter about translations attorneys argue through an interpreter about translations and the interpreting and judges adjudicate on the interpreted testimony and translated evidence

Ukraine Over the Edge Gordon M. Hahn,2018-02-08 The Ukrainian crisis that dominated headlines in fall 2013 was decades in the making Two great schisms shaped events one within Ukraine its western and southeastern parts divided along cultural and political lines the other was driven by geopolitical factors Competition between Russia and the West exacerbated Ukraine's divisions This study focuses on the historical background and complex causality of the crisis from the rise of mass demonstrations on Kiev's Maidan Nezalezhnosti Independence Square to the making of the post revolt regime In the context of a new cold war the author sheds light on the role of radical Ukrainian nationalists and neofascists in the February 2014 snipers massacre the ouster of President Viktor Yanukovych and Russia's seizure of Crimea and involvement in the civil war in the eastern region of Donbass

Water Resource Management in South Asia Anjal Prakash,2022-05-29 This cluster of books presents innovative and nuanced knowledge on water resources based on detailed case studies from South Asia India Bangladesh Bhutan Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka In providing comprehensive analyses of the existing economic demographic and ideological contexts in which water policies are framed and implemented the volumes argue for alternative informed and integrated approaches towards efficient management and equitable distribution of water These also explore the globalization of water governance in the region particularly in relation to new paradigms of neoliberalism civil society participation integrated water resource management IWRM public private partnerships privatization and gender mainstreaming These volumes will be indispensable for scholars and students of development studies environmental studies natural resource management governance and public administration particularly those working on water resources in South Asia They will also be useful for policymakers and governmental and non governmental organizations

Patriotic Ayatollahs Caroleen Marji Sayej,2018-04-15 Patriotic Ayatollahs explores the contributions of senior clerics in state and nation building after the 2003 Iraq war Caroleen Sayej suggests that the four so called Grand Ayatollahs the highest ranking clerics of Iraqi Shiism took on a new and unexpected political role after the fall of Saddam Hussein Drawing on previously unexamined Arabic language fatwas speeches and communiqués of Iraq's four grand ayatollahs this book analyzes how their new pronouncements and narratives shaped public debates after 2003 Sayej argues that contrary to standard narratives about religious actors the Grand Ayatollahs were among the most progressive voices in the new Iraqi nation She traces the transformative position of Ayatollah Sistani as the guardian of democracy after 2003 Sistani was in particular instrumental in derailing American plans that would have excluded Iraqis from the state building process a remarkable story in which an octogenarian cleric takes on the United States over the meaning of democracy Patriotic Ayatollahs counter conventional argument about the ayatollahs vision of a nonsectarian nation is neatly realized Through her deep knowledge and long term engagement with Iraqi politics Sayej advances our understanding of how the post Saddam Iraqi nation was built

The Europeanisation of Contested

Statehood George Kyris,2016-03-09 The Europeanisation of Contested Statehood The EU in northern Cyprus acts as a case study of the impact of the EU on institutions political parties and civil society in contested states self declared states which remain unrecognised in world politics Research drawn from qualitative analysis of official documents public discourse and interviews with various officials and political and social elites within the EU and at a local level provides new insights as to the impact of the EU on northern Cyprus as well as a fresh understanding of the relevance of the EU to contested states in general By doing so the book reflects on what contested statehood means for Europeanisation and lays out a conceptual template for the study of contested states of the wider European periphery such as those in the Caucasus Transnistria Kosovo or the occupied Palestinian territories which continue to represent specific challenges to the international affairs of the EU

The Welsh Language Commissioner in Context Diarmait Mac Golla Chriost,2016-07-20 it is the first book on the subject much of the research data provides a unique insight to the development of government policy and is exclusive to this book several of the research results are quite striking and will be of great interest to academics and policy actors alike

European Access ,2001 Political Changes in Taiwan Under Ma Ying-jeou Jean-Pierre Cabestan,Jacques deLisle,2014-07-17 In 2008 Ma Ying-jeou was elected President of Taiwan and the Kuomintang KMT returned to power after eight years of rule by the Democratic Progressive Party DPP Since taking power the KMT has faced serious difficulties as economic growth has been sluggish society has been polarised over issues of identity and policy and rapprochement between Taipei and Beijing has met with suspicion or reservation among large segments of Taiwanese society Indeed while improved relations with the United States have bolstered Taiwan's security warming cross Strait relations have in turn made Taiwan more dependent upon and vulnerable to an increasingly powerful China This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the return of the Kuomintang KMT to power and examines the significant domestic political economic social and international challenges and changes that have characterized Taiwan since 2008 It identifies the major domestic cross Strait and foreign policy trends and addresses key issues such as elections and Taiwan's party system the role of the presidency and legislature economic development social movements identity politics developments in cross Strait relations Taiwan's security environment and national defence policies relations with the US and Japan In turn the contributors look towards the final years of Ma's presidency and beyond and the structural realities both domestic and external that will shape Taiwan's future Political Changes in Taiwan Under Ma Ying Jeou will be of great interest to students and scholars of Taiwan studies comparative politics international relations and economics It will also appeal to policy makers working in the field

Money, Trains, and

Guillotines William Marotti, 2013-03-27 During the 1960s a group of young artists in Japan challenged official forms of politics and daily life through interventionist art practices William Marotti situates this phenomenon in the historical and political contexts of Japan after the Second World War and the international activism of the 1960s The Japanese government renewed its Cold War partnership with the United States in 1960 defeating protests against a new security treaty through parliamentary action and the use of riot police Afterward the government promoted a depolitized everyday world of high growth and consumption creating a sanitized national image to present in the Tokyo Olympics of 1964 Artists were first to challenge this new political mythology Marotti examines their political art and the state's aggressive response to it He reveals the challenge mounted in projects such as Akasegawa Genpei's 1 000 yen prints a group performance on the busy Yamanote train line and a plan for a giant guillotine in the Imperial Plaza Focusing on the annual Yomiuri Ind pendant exhibition he demonstrates how artists came together in a playful but powerful critical art triggering judicial and police response Money Trains and Guillotines expands our understanding of the role of art in the international 1960s and of the
