

The background of the cover is a monochromatic, reddish-brown stone relief carving. The central figure is a large, seated scholar or scribe, wearing a long, flowing robe, leaning over a large, open book and writing with a quill. To the right of the scholar is a small, ornate structure with four arched openings. Below the main scene, there is a horizontal band containing three smaller figures, also seated and engaged in writing or reading. The overall style is reminiscent of classical or medieval art.
