Caroline Bishop

Ideal Classic He Manual:

Cicero, Greek Learning, and the Making of a Roman Classic Caroline Bishop, 2018-11-29 The Roman statesman orator and author Marcus Tullius Cicero is the embodiment of a classic his works have been read continuously from antiquity to the present his style is considered the model for classical Latin and his influence on Western ideas about the value of humanistic pursuits is both deep and profound However despite the significance of subsequent reception in ensuring his canonical status Cicero Greek Learning and the Making of a Roman Classic demonstrates that no one is more responsible for Cicero's transformation into a classic than Cicero himself and that in his literary works he laid the groundwork for the ways in which he is still remembered today The volume presents a new way of understanding Cicero's career as an author by situating his textual production within the context of the growth of Greek classicism the movement had begun to flourish shortly before his lifetime and he clearly grasped its benefits both for himself and for Roman literature more broadly By strategically adapting classic texts from the Greek world and incorporating into his adaptations the interpretations of the Hellenistic philosophers poets rhetoricians and scientists who had helped enshrine those works as classics he could envision and create texts with classical authority for a parallel Roman canon Ranging across a variety of genres including philosophy rhetoric oratory poetry and letters this close study of Cicero's literary works moves from his early translation of Aratus poetry and its later reappearance through self quotation to Platonizing philosophy Aristotelian rhetoric Demosthenic oratory and even a planned Greek style letter collection Juxtaposing incisive analysis of how Cicero consciously adopted classical Greek writers as models and predecessors with detailed accounts of the reception of those figures by Greek scholars of the Hellenistic period the volume not only offers ground breaking new insights into Cicero's ascension to canonical status but also a salutary new account of Greek intellectual life and its effect on Roman literature

Growing Old in the Middle Ages Shulamith Shahar, 2004 This study draws a comprehensive picture of medieval old age in western Europe combining primary sources and secondary literature to produce a broad cultural history

The Classic Christopher Prendergast, 2007-06-21 Focusing on a moment and a source in nineteenth century France Christopher Prendergast takes up a big question that is still with us What is a classic The question is by virtue of its insistent recurrence itself a classic question It returns to haunt us It provided the title of a text for French critic Charles Augustin Sainte Beuve in 1850 Qu'est-ce qu'un classique as it did in the twentieth century for T S Eliot and John Coetzee Centring on Sainte Beuve in his nineteenth century context Prendergast's inquiry takes us historically to many places antiquity the middle ages the seventeenth and eighteenth as well as the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries He also provides an intellectual history that travels across multiple disciplinary territories in addition to literary criticism and literary history classical studies comparative philology historiography and political thought Against this background The Classic maps the evolution of Sainte Beuve's thought from an initially cosmopolitan conception of the classic close in spirit to Goethe's notion of Weltliteratur to an increasingly nationalist conception with a strong emphasis on the heritage of Latinity and France as its principal legatee This emphasis was taken up by the extreme right in France after Sainte Beuve's death in a determined mobilizing of a version of the classic on behalf of a proto fascist agenda The final chapter deals with this appropriation and ends with a question of our own about Sainte Beuve's original question in the light of this bleak history perhaps the time has come to dispense with the term classic altogether The Brickbuilder, 1893 An architectural monthly Keyboard Presents Classic Rock Ernie Rideout, 2010-05 A collection of in depth interviews from Keyboard magazine highlighting the leading keyboardists of classic rock Homes and Gardens, 1929 A practical magazine dealing with houses furniture and equipment gardens sic Our Homes and Gardens, 1929 New Essays on Pareto's Economic Theory Luigino Bruni, Aldo Montesano, 2009-05-07 Pareto's Manual of Political Economy first published in 1905 introduced the analytical approach which has characterised a significant part of twentieth century economic theory In particular the Manual examined the ordinal representation of the individual choice the issue of the general economic equilibrium and the Pareto optimality criterion for evaluating economic efficiency The Manual also contained analyses of production non linear prices non competitive markets and the competition process which have not yet been fully developed in modern mainstream economics Based on Pareto's groundbreaking Manuale di Economia Politica this edited collection brings together a selection of essays from some of the most authoritative scholars of Pareto who discuss the relevance of Pareto's economics in the context of the present theoretical debate WALNECK'S CLASSIC CYCLE TRADER, APRIL 2008 Causey Enterprises, LLC, The Making of a Savior Bodhisattva Shi Zhiru, 2007-08-14 In modern Chinese Buddhism Dizang is especially popular as the sovereign of the underworld Often represented as a monk wearing a royal crown Dizang helps the deceased faithful navigate the complex underworld bureaucracy avert the punitive terrors of hell and arrive at the happy realm of rebirth The author is concerned with the formative period of this important Buddhist deity before his underworldly aspect eclipses his connections to other religious expressions and at a time when the art mythology practices and texts of his cult were still replete with possibilities She begins by problematizing the reigning model of Dizang one that proposes an evolution of gradual sinicization and increasing vulgarization of a relatively unknown Indian bodhisattva Ksitigarbha into a Chinese deity of the underworld Such a model the author argues obscures the many faceted personality and iconography of Dizang Rejecting it she deploys a broad array of materials art epigraphy ritual texts scripture and narrative literature to recomplexify Dizang and restore as much as possible from the fragmented historical sources what this figure meant to Chinese Buddhists from the sixth to tenth centuries Rather than privilege any one genre of evidence the author treats both material artifacts and literary works canonical and noncanonical sources Adopting an archaeological approach she excavates motifs from and finds resonances across disparate genres to paint a vibrant detailed picture of the medieval Dizang cult Through her analysis the cult far from being an isolated phenomenon is revealed as integrally woven into the entire fabric of Chinese Buddhism functioning as a kaleidoscopic lens encompassing a multivalent religio cultural assimilation that resists the usual bifurcation of doctrine and practice or elite and popular religion The Making of a Savior Bodhisattva presents a fascinating wealth of material on the personality iconography and lore associated with the medieval Dizang It elucidates the complex cultural religious and social forces shaping the florescence of this savior cult in Tang China while simultaneously addressing several broader theoretical issues that have preoccupied the field Zhiru not only questions the use of sinicization as a lens through which to view Chinese Buddhist history she also brings both canonical and noncanonical literature into dialogue with a body of archaeological remains that has been ignored in the study of East Asian Buddhism
