Movie Compare Contrast Graphic Organizer:

The Teacher's Guide to Media Literacy Cyndy Scheibe, Faith Rogow, 2012 A Deeper Sense of Literacy is the first book to suggest that media literacy is both a content area and an approach to teaching that can be integrated into any subject area. It combines theory and practical application in a way that addresses the most important questions related to media literacy in education today: what is it, why is it important, how can you teach it across a wide range of curriculum areas and grade levels, and does it work? Rather than focusing on how to teach media literacy, Scheibe and Rogow focus on actually using media literacy to teach lessons across the content areas. Creative Homework Assignments, Grades 2 - 3

DeGeronimo, Diehl, 2007-05-23 Break up the routine and challenge students in grades 2-3 with Creative Homework Assignments. This 80-page book has more than 140 unique activities that are perfect for practice and enrichment in language arts, math, science, and social studies. Challenge students with games, puzzles, art projects, scavenger hunts, kitchen fun, role playing, imaginative play, and creative writing. The book includes a skills index for targeted learning, a reproducible family letter, and supply list, reproducible task cards, and an assessment for each activity. Show Me Katherine Scaper, Vicki Scaper, 2006 Organized into fiction, nonfiction, and word study units, 32 graphic organizers build reading strategies such as predicting, identifying main ideas, making inferences, analyzing cause and effect, and drawing conclusions. Each organizer is supported by a six-page lesson comprising teacher instructions, a reproducible passage to read, a photocopy master of the organizer, a filled-out copy of the organizer along with model student responses, a writing assignment for which the graphic organizer becomes a writing planner and assessment, and extension activity ideas. Grades 4-6. Illustrated. Good Year Books. 202 pages. Matilda, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Cynthia Swain, 2011 What did the reviewer think of the books Matilda and Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, both written by Roald Dahl? What did the reviewer have to say about each book's movie adaptation? Will you then read the book and/or watch the movie? If so, will you agree or disagree with the reviewer's judgment? Read these reviews to find out. Learn & Use Inspiration in Your Classroom Erin K.

Head, 2007-07-24 Integrate technology into four content areas: language arts, science, social studies, and math by using Inspiration in your classroom. Hollywood or History? Sarah J. Kaka, 2022-01-01 The rationale for the present text Hollywood or History: An Inquiry-Based Strategy for Using Film to Teach About Inequality and Inequity Throughout History stems from two main things. First and foremost is the fact that the reviews of the first two volumes in the Hollywood or History series have been overwhelmingly positive, especially as it pertains to the application of the strategy for practitioners. Classroom utility and teacher practice have continued to be the primary objectives in developing the Hollywood or History strategy. The second thing is that this most recent volume in the series takes it in a new direction rather than focusing on eras in history; it focuses on the themes of inequity and inequality throughout history and how teachers can utilize the Hollywood or History strategy to tackle some of the more complicated content throughout history that many teachers tend to shy away from There is a firm belief that students connection to film along with teachers ability to use film in an effective manner will help alleviate some of the challenges of teaching challenging topics such as inequity and inequality in terms of gender race socioeconomic status and so much more The book provides 30 secondary lesson plans grades 6 12 that address nine different topics centered around inequity and inequality throughout history many of which connect students to the world we are living in today The intended audience for the book are teachers who teach social studies at the 6th 12th grade level both in the United States and other countries An additional audience will be college and university social studies history methods professors in the United States and worldwide Restorative Assessment Laura M.
