My belief about myself as a learner when I entered the class was a positive one. I attended a college prep school for high school and went to Oregon State University last year. I had plenty of practice with different learning techniques and found what works well for me. I believe I'm more of a visual learner than an auditory learner. It is easier to see a powerpoint and retain the knowledge then listen to a lecture and have the same retention. Entering the class I thought I liked working in groups more than working individually on projects, but that has since changed. I think it is more beneficial to me to work alone because I can get more done. When I entered the class I believed that reading the material closer to the due date was a better idea because I may not remember what I had read if I didn't.

What I have discovered about myself, as a learner over the term is vast. I learned that I can read the material way in advance and just briefly skim over the text and remember just about everything, were as I thought reading closer was more beneficial. I also learned that working in groups really isn't my specialty. I prefer working by myself because I'm able to get a lot more done and not have to worry about other people forgetting their part of the project. I don't like having to worry about other people not following through. I also learned that looking at the daily record in advanced helped me

How To Write A Reflection Paper Examples:

Embracing Writing Gary R. Hafer, 2014-09-10 Embracing WRITING Embracing Writing responds to the writing across the curriculum movement in a way that enables educators to integrate writing into their courses not just painlessly but productively instead of simply increasing their workloads with writing assignments that students dislike Embracing Writing elucidates the principles of academic writing and shows instructors how to integrate writing with course content blending them to enhance and deepen the higher education learning process Scholarly writing is a central part of the academic experience and when used effectively can be an outstanding pedagogical tool The creative approach in Embracing Writing will have you looking at writing in a whole new way Not only will your students appreciate the honest nurturing and fun writing assignments but your own writing will improve as well This is not a rulebook for writers but a guided approach to viewing writing and content as one indivisible whole Embracing Writing will help you Engage students in writing assignments that actually help them develop their writing ability Understand what makes good collegiate writing and how it can aid in content discovery Discover new pathways for your own writing so writing for publication and the classroom is enjoyable again Develop a writing pedagogy that doesn't detract from core course content delivery There often is a disconnect between administrative demands for in course writing and the inadequate training resources available to faculty members Because most of us aren't trained as writers we need a meaningful way to connect writing to our areas of expertise Embracing Writing provides that connection
