

Part B – Document Based Essay

Historical Context – Provides background information related to the time period or focus of the essay.

Example

Historical Context: As new technologies and knowledge made global exploration possible, trade routes were established all over the world. Europe established these trade routes in an effort to spread Renaissance thought, European culture, and expand their wealth and power.

Task – Assigned topics the essay will focus on.

Example

Task: Using information from the documents and your knowledge of world history, write an essay in which you:

- Discuss how the European drive for god, glory, and gold fueled the age of exploration.
- Explain the effects of the age of exploration.

Document-Based Assessment Activities Marc Pioch, Jodene Smith, 2020-03-02 Today's students need to know how to evaluate sources and use evidence to support their conclusions. This K-12 resource for teachers provides instructional support as well as a variety of learning opportunities for students. Through the activities in this book, students will ask and answer compelling questions, analyze primary sources, approach learning through an inquiry lens, and hone their historical thinking skills. The lessons teach skills and strategies for analyzing historical documents, partnered with document-based assessments. Graphic organizer templates help students structure their analyses. This resource, written by Marc Pioch and Jodene Smith, prepares students for standardized tests and engages students with inquiry. The scaffolded approach to teaching analysis skills can be applied across grades K-12.

Roadmap to the Regents Princeton Review (Firm), 2003-01-21 The Princeton Review's Roadmap series gives students the help they need to make state tests a breeze. The Roadmap guides for New York students include practice tests designed to simulate the real exams as closely as possible. The Roadmap series works as a year-long companion to earning higher grades as well as passing high-stakes exams.
