The Focus Group Guidebook David L. Morgan, Richard A. Krueger, Jean A. King, 1998 The Focus Group Guide book is part of the six volume Focus Group Kit which offers the information needed to conduct a state of the art focus group from the initial planning stages through to analysing and reporting the data Qualitative Data Collection Tools Felice D.

Billups, 2019-12-20 Qualitative Data Collection Tools by Felice D Billups is a new and unique supplementary text that will guide students and new researchers to design develop pilot and employ qualitative tools in order to collect qualitative data

Changemaking Richard Bevan, 2013-02 Changemaking takes a fresh look at managing change Focusing on tactics rather than strategy the book is for those who carry out the practical day to day work of supporting and sustaining change It focuses on the details and provides the needed toolkit materials that readers can refer to draw on and adapt These include checklists templates questionnaires tactics FAQs talking points e mails and other resources Short case histories illustrate what can go wrong and how it can be made to go right The book provides a framework of seven factors that summarize the conditions resources and processes that support successful change It also offers specific guidance on processes that are often employed to move a change initiative forward including making the case for change managing employee focus groups and developing FAQ Frequently Asked Question guides The 50 resources are designed to provide a starting point for readers to adapt and use in their own organizations Develop the materials to reflect your own goals and needs and deploy them as you support your own change initiative Using Focus Groups to Listen, Learn, and Lead in Higher Education Mona J.E.

Danner, J. Worth Pickering, Tisha M. Paredes, 2023-07-03 Using Focus Groups to Listen Learn and Lead in Higher Education presents an easy to use 6 step guide to help leaders in higher education listen to and learn from their stakeholders in order to enhance decision making The big questions facing institutions today especially those surrounding access affordability and accountability require more than dashboards Metrics and quantitative data alone do not offer lasting solutions and improvements Using qualitative methods to listen to the voices of those involved especially students and staff is critical Focus groups constitute the most appropriate rigorous and relevant qualitative research tool for this purpose and one that is cost effective and builds community when conducted using the ODU Method described in this book Using Focus Groups is a single comprehensive and practical resource that describes why when and how to use focus groups The authors provide detailed guidance for using focus groups from developing the research questions with stakeholders through training and recruiting moderators and identifying and recruiting participants to the logistics of conducting focus groups and ultimately analyzing data and developing final reports Conversational vignettes illustrate the discussions that regularly occur in each step and help the reader better understand the process Fifteen appendices provide templates and examples of every part of the process Written particularly for institutional research and assessment staff and upper level administrators this book will also appeal to deans department and program chairs and directors faculty leaders and administrative unit directors including those in auxiliary and student services alumni associations and university foundations It also serves as an excellent resource for higher education research methods courses The authors are uniquely positioned to guide readers in this process The team developed and refined this technique over two decades at Old Dominion University They have conducted over 100 focus groups with campus nonprofit local and international community organizations to assist them in assessing student learning transition and preparedness for the workforce as well as evaluating organizations work and planning future projects

Media and Middle Class Moms Lara J. Descartes, Conrad Kottak, 2010-04-02 Written by nationally recognized anthropologists Conrad Kottak and Lara Descartes this ethnography of largely white middle class families in a town in the midwest explores the role that the media play in influencing how those families cope with everyday work family issues The book insightfully reports that families struggle with and make work family decisions based largely on the images and ideas they receive from media sources though they strongly deny being so influenced An ideal book for teaching undergraduate family media and methods courses

Creating the Viewer Justin Wyatt, 2024-04-23 A study of the largely hidden world of primary media market research and the different methods used to understand how the viewer is pictured in the industry The first book on the intersection between market research and media Creating the Viewer takes a critical look at media companies studies of television viewers the assumptions behind these studies and the images of the viewer that are constructed through them Justin Wyatt examines various types of market research including talent testing pilot testing series maintenance brand studies and new show ideation providing examples from a range of programming including news sitcoms reality shows and dramas He looks at brand studies for networks such as E and examines how the brands of individuals such as showrunner Ryan Murphy can be tested Both an analytical and practical work the book includes sample questionnaires and paths for study moderators and research analysts to follow Drawn from over fifteen years of experience in research departments at various media companies Creating the Viewer looks toward the future of media viewership discussing how the concept of the viewer has changed in the age of streaming how services such as Netflix view market research and how viewers themselves can shift the industry through their media choices behaviors and activities
