Aafreedi, Priya Singh, 2021-05-13 Conceptualizing Mass Violence draws attention to the conspicuous inability to inhibit mass violence in myriads forms and considers the plausible reasons for doing so Focusing on a postcolonial perspective the volume seeks to popularize and institutionalize the study of mass violence in South Asia The essays explore and deliberate upon the varied aspects of mass violence namely revisionism reconstruction atrocities trauma memorialization and literature the need for Holocaust education and the criticality of dialogue and reconciliation The language content and characteristics of mass violence genocide explicitly reinforce its aggressive transmuting and multifaceted character and the consequent necessity to understand the same in a nuanced manner The book is an attempt to do so as it takes episodes of mass violence for case study from all inhabited continents from the twentieth century to the present The volume studies consciously enforced mass violence through an interdisciplinary approach and suggests that dialogue aimed at reconciliation is perhaps the singular agency via which a solution could be achieved from mass violence in the global context The volume is essential reading for postgraduate students and scholars from the interdisciplinary fields of Holocaust and Genocide Studies History Political Science Sociology World History Human Rights and Global Studies

American Literature in Transition, 1980-1990 D. Not in the Heavens David Biale, 2010-10-18 The story of the origins and development of a Jewish form of secularism Not in the Heavens traces the rise of Jewish secularism through the visionary writers and thinkers who led its development Spanning the rich history of Judaism from the Bible to today David Biale shows how the secular tradition these visionaries created is a uniquely Jewish one and how the emergence of Jewish secularism was not merely a response to modernity but arose from forces long at play within Judaism itself Biale explores how ancient Hebrew books like Job Song of Songs and Esther downplay or even exclude God altogether and how Spinoza inspired by medieval Jewish philosophy recast the biblical God in the role of nature and stripped the Torah of its revelatory status to instead read scripture as a historical and cultural text Biale examines the influential Jewish thinkers who followed in Spinoza's secularizing footsteps such as Salomon Maimon Heinrich Heine Sigmund Freud and Albert Einstein He tells the stories of those who also took their cues from medieval Jewish mysticism in their revolts against tradition including Hayim Nahman Bialik Gershom Scholem and Franz Kafka And he looks at Zionists like David Ben Gurion and other secular political thinkers who recast Israel and the Bible in modern terms of race nationalism and the state Not in the Heavens demonstrates how these many Jewish paths to secularism were dependent in complex and paradoxical ways on the very religious traditions they were rejecting and examines the legacy and meaning of Jewish secularism today
