Food and Beverage Cost Control Lea R. Dopson, David K. Hayes, 2019-09-04 Professional foodservice managers are faced with a wide array of challenges on a daily basis. Controlling costs, setting budgets and pricing goods are essential for success in any hospitality or culinary business. Food and Beverage Cost Control provides the tools required to maintain sales and cost histories, develop systems for monitoring current activities and forecast future costs. This detailed yet reader-friendly guide helps students and professionals alike understand and apply practical techniques to effectively manage food and beverage costs. Now in its seventh edition, this extensively revised and updated book examines the entire cycle of cost control, including purchasing, production, sales, analysis, product costing, food cost formulas, and much more. Each chapter presents complex ideas in a clear, easy-to-understand style. Micro case studies present students with real-world scenarios and problems, while step-by-step numerical examples highlight the arithmetic necessary to understand cost control-related concepts. Covering everything from food sanitation to service methods, this practical guide helps readers enhance their knowledge of the hospitality management industry and increase their professional self-confidence.

Strategic Staffing Jean M. Phillips, 2023-01-05 Formerly published by Chicago Business Press, now published by Sage. Strategic Staffing equips both current and future managers with the knowledge and skills to adopt a strategic and contemporary approach to talent identification, attraction, selection, deployment, and retention. Grounded in research, this text covers modern staffing concepts and practices in an engaging and reader-friendly format. Author Jean Phillips expertly guides students in developing a staffing strategy that aligns with business objectives, accurately forecasting talent needs, conducting thorough job or competency analysis, and strategically sourcing potential recruits. The Fifth Edition includes the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on staffing needs, worldwide new coverage of staffing-related technologies, and updated examples throughout, providing students with the latest and most relevant knowledge in the field. International Handbook of Skill, Education, Learning, and Research Development in Tourism and Hospitality Anukrati Sharma, 2024-09-28 This handbook provides new dimensions and directions to design tourism education curriculums and transform students' learning. It delves into issues such as job opportunities, business opportunities, required skill sets, and the role of critical and creative thinking in tourism education, and focuses on a shift in mindset from R & D (research and development) to L & D (learning and development) to aid in gaining in-the-field knowledge. It presents a global perspective on the latest trends, innovative curriculum research, and skill needs in the travel, tourism, and hotel industry via empirical, theoretical, and conceptual chapters, as well as through global case studies. This handbook explores how to develop the skills, attributes, and prospects for employment in these competitive industries and also highlights what employers in the tourism and hospitality sectors expect from graduate and/or post graduate candidates Besides examining the contribution of tourism education towards a better society this handbook introduces a new way of designing curriculums and examines the past practices current trends and future opportunities in the field
