Pleasure in Ancient Greek Philosophy David Wolfsdorf, 2013 An examination of ancient Greek philosophical conceptions of pleasure which is the first book to compare them to contemporary conceptions His Majesty's Pleasure Conal O'Riordan, 1925 The Pleasure of Pictures Jérôme Pelletier, Alberto Voltolini, 2018-07-17 The general aim of this volume is to investigate the nature of the relation between pictorial experience and aesthetic appreciation In particular it is concerned with the character and intimacy of this relationship is there a mere causal connection between pictorial experience and aesthetic appreciation or are the two related constitutively associated with one another The essays in the book's first section investigate important conceptual issues related to the pictorial experience of paintings In Section II the essays discuss the notion of styles techniques agency and facture and also take into account the experience of photographic and cinematic pictures The Pleasure of Pictures goes substantially beyond current debates in the philosophy of depiction to launch a new area of reflection in philosophical aesthetics The Pleasure Seekers Tishani Doshi, 2011-04-04 August 1968 Babo Patel arrives in London from Madras with curly hair jhill mill teeth and dreams of becoming a success When he meets the beautiful auburn haired Si n Jones he falls in love instantly She like him is in search of something bigger than what the home she left behind can offer But when Babo's parents learn of his intention to marry some girl from God knows where he is given an ultimatum he can only marry Si n if they agree to live in Madras for two years before returning to London As the years pass by the calamities quirks and heartaches of first love lost innocence and old age unfold across cultures and generations of this mixed up family in a topsy turvy world Moral Tribes Joshua Greene, 2014-12-30 Surprising and remarkable Toggling between big ideas technical details and his personal intellectual journey Greene writes a thesis suitable to both airplane reading and PhD seminars The Boston Globe Our brains were designed for tribal life for getting along with a select group of others Us and for fighting off everyone else Them But modern times have forced the world's tribes into a shared space resulting in epic clashes of values along with unprecedented opportunities As the world shrinks the moral lines that divide us become more salient and more puzzling We fight over everything from tax codes to gay marriage to global warming and we wonder where if at all we can find our common ground A grand synthesis of neuroscience psychology and philosophy Moral Tribes reveals the underlying causes of modern conflict and lights the way forward Greene compares the human brain to a dual mode camera with point and shoot automatic settings portrait landscape as well as a manual mode Our point and shoot settings are our emotions efficient automated programs honed by evolution culture and personal experience The brain's manual mode is its capacity for deliberate reasoning which makes our thinking flexible Point and shoot emotions make us social animals turning Me into Us But they also make us tribal animals turning Us against Them Our tribal emotions make us fight sometimes with bombs sometimes with words often with life and death stakes A major achievement from a rising star in a new scientific field Moral Tribes will refashion your deepest beliefs about how moral thinking works and how it can work better Picture Pedagogy Paul Duncum,2020-05-14 Contemporary societies are saturated with pictures They are globally a part of everyday life and they are seductive offering values and beliefs in such highly pleasurable forms that it is often difficult to resist their power to persuade Yet interpreting pictures is largely neglected in schools Picture Pedagogy addresses this head on showing that pictures can be used as a powerful form of classroom pedagogy Duncum explores key concepts and curriculum examples to empower you to support students to develop a critical consciousness about pictures whether teaching art media language or social studies Drawing on the interpretive concepts of representation rhetoric ideology aesthetic pleasure intertextuality and the gaze Duncum shows how you can develop your students skills so that their power as viewers can match the power of pictures to seduce Examples from the history of fine art and contemporary popular mass media including Big Data and fake news are drawn together and shown to be appealing to the same aesthetic pleasures Often these pleasures are benign but also problematic helping to promote morally questionable ideas about a range of topics including gender race and sexual orientation and this is explored fully The Pleasure Cats of Nova Playa A.

Malone,2023-02-03 The Pleasure Cats of Nova Playa is a story of sex drugs alcohol violence and techno music Set in the fictional sun soaked Mediterranean resort of Playa Nova where underground under town cats mirror the excesses of the sunseekers above Into this bustling vibrant underground city arrives the beautiful Napoleona a charming and cunning cat with a past but with her eyes fixed squarely on the future and in particular the coming winter In the summer the cats feast and party but the cold desolate winter threatens to thin them out She encounters new dangers especially Count Luciano the second in command to King Louie gangsters with pretensions of nobility The pursuit of power and pleasure seems to have no bounds in this subterranean city How far will Napoleona go to ensure the party never ends Spiritual Thoughts for the Moment Dr. Jim Crissinger,2014-10-07 The power of God s word is often times hard to explain because of the influence and wisdom in those words and the emotions or feeling these words can often provoke within all of us You need to know and understand that we can trust and believe what God has provided and granted to us and that by acting upon God s word and not merely reacting to a situation we will be able to manage our emotions instead of allowing them to manage us I offer you this piece of personal advice You only have a lifetime to figure out how you are going to spend eternity Choose wisely The Radical Fool of Capitalism Christian Welzbacher,2018-04-20 A fresh interpretation of Jeremy Bentham finding that his radical foolery embodied a social ethics that was revolutionary for its time Jeremy Bentham 1748 1832 is best remembered today as the founder of utilitarianism a philosophy infamously abused by the Victorians and the conceiver of the Panopticon the circular prison house in which all prisoners could be seen by an unseen observer later seized upon by Michel Foucault as the apotheosis of the neoliberal control society In this volume in the Untimely Meditation series Christian Welzbacher offers a new interpretation of Bentham arguing that his radical foolery paraphrasing Goethe s characterization of Bentham actually embodied a social ethics that was new for its time and demands proper historical contextualization rather than retroactive analysis from the vantage point of late capitalism Welzbacher provides just such an analysis offering an account of the two great utilitarian projects that occupied Bentham all his life the Panopticon and the Auto Icon Welzbacher rescues the Panopticon from the misapprehensions of Foucault Orwell and Lacan arguing that Bentham saw the Panopticon as a pedagogical instrument incorporating the tenets of reason construction and function plan and influence architecture and politics are brought into alignment Bentham extolled the discovery in words that could easily be ascribed to Le Corbusier Bruno Taut or any other modernist architect The Auto Icon expressed Bentham's theories that the dead should benefit later generations these theories were effectively sealed when Bentham decided to have his body preserved and put on display It can be seen today in a cabinet at University College London He also donated his inner organs to science a practice outlawed at the time and posthumously stage managed his own ceremonial autopsy Welzbacher reveals a Bentham who raised questions that feel familiar and current invoking topoi that would come to define the modern era and that reverberate to this day
