The Trojan Horse Deborah Philips,Garry Whannel,2013-08-29 The Trojan Horse traces the growth of commercial sponsorship in the public sphere since the 1960s its growing importance for the arts since 1980 and its spread into areas such as education and health The authors central argument is that the image of sponsorship as corporate benevolence has served to routinize and legitimate the presence of commerce within the public sector The central metaphor is of such sponsorship as a Trojan Horse helping to facilitate the hollowing out of the public sector by private agencies and private finance The authors place the study in the context of the more general colonization of the state by private capital and the challenge posed to the dominance of neo liberal economics by the recent global financial crisis After considering the passage from patronage to sponsorship and outlining the context of the post war public sector since 1945 it analyses sponsorship in relation to Thatcherism enterprise culture and the restructuring of public provision during the 1980s It goes on to examine the New Labour years and the ways in which sponsorship has paved the way for the increased use of private public partnerships and private finance initiatives within the public sector in the UK The Political Economy of European Football Dariusz Wojtaszyn,Daniel Fitzpatrick,Roland Benedikter,2024-11-27 This book explores the contemporary dynamics of European football s political economy mapping the various market and regulatory forces that shape its current position and development Offering a conceptual framework for understanding political economy as applied to the study of football this book presents in depth case studies from Central and Eastern Europe a region largely underexplored in the research literature that enable the reader to gain a sense of the rich history and diversity of the economic and social contexts in which European football is shaped The first part of this book sets out the market structure of football in Europe and considers how key trends of globalisation and hypercommercialisation have been addressed through attempts to incentivise and regulate the football market It presents a theoretical framework for political economy in football and explores key issues including football and economic development UEFA s Financial Fair Play regulations sponsorship in football and the socio economic conditions of hooligan violence The second part of the book looks more closely at Central and Eastern Europe Presenting case studies of aspects of political economy in football in Romania Poland East Germany Austria and Hungary including development of the women s game this book shows how the economic development of European football has been uneven not only subject to global trends but also dependent on local historical political economic and organisational conditions Opening up new perspectives on the complex interactions between states sports organisations markets and society this book will be fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in football the history politics or business of sport or political economy as a field of scholarly enquiry A Husband for All Seasons Irene Brand,2010-12-27 His faith was being tested for the first time Chad Reece s promising pro football career was cut short by a devastating accident and then a kidney transplant

Schafer,2004 Football is one of Auburn's oldest and most beloved institutions. Formally established as a varsity sport by Dr. George Petrie in 1891, Auburn's football team has proudly represented the school for over a century. The team shares some of the South's oldest college football rivalries with the University of Georgia and the University of Alabama, a rivalry tested annually in the Iron Bowl. Throughout their history, the Tigers have earned the honor of SEC Champions and a national championship and have been featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated; the team has produced many professional players and Hall of Fame inductees. Auburn football also boasts a very dedicated legion of fans who love to cheer on their Tigers both at home and away. The images contained within Auburn Football illustrate the team's impressive history filled with legendary coaches such as Shug Jordan and John Heisman and Heisman trophy winning players Pat Sullivan and Bo Jackson. Auburn's football tradition will continue to delight fans and attract players for decades to come.

Transmitting the Past J. Emmett Winn, Susan Lorene Brinson, 2005-03-20. The essays included in this collection represent some of the best cultural and historical research on broadcasting in the U.S. today. Each one concentrates on a particular event in broadcast history beginning with Marconi's introduction of wireless technology in 1899. Michael Brown examines newspaper reporting in America of Marconi's belief in Martians' stories that effectively rendered Marconi inconsequential to the further development of radio. The widespread installation of radios in automobiles in the 1950s. Matthew Killmeier argues paralleled the development of television and ubiquitous middle class suburbia in America. Heather Hundley analyzes depictions of male and female promiscuity as presented in the sitcom Cheers at a time concurrent with media coverage of the AIDS crisis. Fritz Messere examines the Federal Radio Act of 1927 and the clash of competing ideas about what role radio should play in American life. Chad Dell recounts the high brow programming strategy NBC adopted in 1945 to distinguish itself from other networks. And George Plasketes studies the critical reactions to Cop Rock, an ill-fated combination of police drama and musical as an example of society's resistance to genre mixing or departures from formulaic programming. J. Emmett Winn is Associate Professor of Communication and Journalism at Auburn University. Susan L. Brinson is Professor of Communication and Journalism at Auburn University and author of The Red Scare: Politics and the Federal Communications Commission. Congressional Record United States Congress, 1958. Commercialism Alex Molnar, 2013-09-13. Pizza Hut's Book It program rewards students with pizza for meeting their reading goals. Toys R Us paid a Kansas school five dollars for each student who took its toy survey. Cisco Systems donated internet access to a California elementary school asking in return for the school choir to sing the company's praises while wearing Cisco t-shirts. Kids today face a barrage of corporate messages in the classroom. In School Commercialism, education expert Alex Molnar traces marketing in American schools over the last twenty-five years, raising serious questions about the role of private corporations in public education. Since the 1990s, Molnar argues, commercial activities have shaped the structure of the school day, influenced the curriculum, and determined whether children have access to computers and other technologies.

He argues convincingly against advertisers assertion that their contributions are a win win proposition for cash strapped schools and image conscious companies From the marketing of unhealthy foods to privatizing reforms such as the Edison Schools and Knowledge Universe School Commercialism tracks trends that are more pervasive than many parents realize and shows how we might recapture schools to better serve the public interest Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayeboafah,2006-02-02 Copersucar-Fittipaldi: The full story of Brazilian Formula-1 Ricardo Sterchele,2020-01-10 It documents the events that took place inside and outside the backstage of each Grand Prix from 1975 to 1980 that affected the team s performance on the tracks It brings a summary of the best articles articles interviews statements and photos presented in journalistic reports published at the time showing the reader all the effort and overcoming the setbacks that these fearless brothers went through This is what made them victorious whose attitudes we must all aim for They are winners because they managed to let go of financial interests and easy successes to invest all their energies in the realization of a great dream an ideal This is the greatest and best example that they set for all our young people today and tomorrow The purpose of the sponsorship was to show the world that Brazil was not commanded by chiefs or that the Japanese descended from their liners in rowboats to exchange native products for baffles That in Brazil there was an industrial park and high tech development centers in addition to a brave and fearless people who are not afraid of adversity The Fittipaldi brothers showed the world that we despite the Tupiniquins can match any enterprise with the same quality and competence as the most developed countries What we lack is to support our initiatives with respect and patriotism Demanding victories in such a technologically sophisticated and complex enterprise in the early years shows that in the field of wisdom and humility we are still underdeveloped Commerce Business Daily ,1998-11
