

FOOTBALL MOM

I wash a lot of stinky socks. I cook chicken spaghetti & brownies for the pre-game meals. I wear the button & buy the program ads. My spirit brightens when my favorite numbered jersey gets sent into the game. I lose my voice telling the 'd' to hold the line & when celebrating incredible passes caught or tackles made. I also hug complete strangers wildly when we score unexpectedly. I know very well to never initiate conversation after a disappointing loss. I listen to the complete play-by-play recap when we win. The band & the cheers will fade; the lights will dim, & I will fondly remember all my days as a football mom.
