with kindness love and respect Jack's life was marked by a conflict between folly and resignation Folly is portrayed by evils of oppression and dictatorship of Evildoers who ruled the postcolonial Burundi The main character of Dickson Rushatsihori is presented as the symbol of evil the prototype of Evildoers He is a rigid and corrupted individual who would never wish peace to his fellow citizens Rather than seeing Burundians living in harmony with one another this proponent of the status quo would only wish evil chaos and anarchy to his country The theme of folly is also depicted in Jack's relationship with Nikita Chissocco It is illustrated by Nikita's betrayal of his love for her Nikita expresses her folly through abusive language domestic violence infidelities and her collaboration with Evildoers such as Dick Juvenhack Zim and Gera to destroy her husband's dignity Jack was forced to a war for the liberation of his mind imprisoned in his own house He hoped that folly and resignation would eventually coil up He would not accept that his destiny was to suffer all his life Folly and resignation finally collided forcing Jack to defend his honor and dignity By breaking up with Dick and Nikita's folly he liberated himself from a heavy burden He pulled himself together to reconstruct his life with more strength and courage This captivating story is an account of one's life yet it will touch those of so many Not only does it bring into the fore the injustices of this world it also shows that no matter what life throws at us we all seek love and closeness with another human being

Sources for Studying the Holocaust Paul R. Bartrop, 2023-04-14 Sources for Studying the Holocaust provides a pathway for readers to engage with questions about what sources can be used to study the Holocaust For many historians the challenge has been how to rescue the story from oblivion when oft used sources for other periods of history introduce even more issues around authenticity and reliability What can be learned of what transpired in villages and towns numbering several thousand people when all its Jewish inhabitants were totally obliterated through Nazi action Who can furnish eyewitness testimony if all the eyewitnesses were killed How does one examine written records preserving knowledge of facts or events where none were kept or survived the onslaught And what weight do we put upon such resources which did manage to endure the destruction wrought by the Holocaust Each chapter looks at one of a diverse range of source materials from which scholars have rescued the history including survivor testimony diaries letters newspaper accounts photographs trial documents artefacts digital resources memorials films literature and art Each chapter shows how different types of records can be utilised as accurate sources for the writing of Holocaust history Collectively they highlight the ways in which all material even the most fragmentary can be employed to recreate a reliable record of what happened during the Holocaust and show how all sources considered can be employed to find meaning and understanding by exploring a range of sources deeply This book is a unique analysis of the types of sources that can be used to access the history of Holocaust It will be of invaluable interest to readers students and researchers of the Holocaust

The Distinction of Peace

Catherine Goetze,2017-05-09 Peacebuilding serves as a catch all term to describe efforts by an array of international organizations nongovernmental organizations and agencies of foreign states to restore or construct a peaceful society in the wake or even in the midst of conflict Despite this variety practitioners consider themselves members of a global profession In The Distinction of Peace Catherine Goetze investigates the genesis of peacebuilding as a professional field of expertise since the 1960s its increasing influence and the ways it reflects global power structures Goetze describes how the peacebuilding field came into being how it defines who belongs to it and who does not and what kind of group culture it has generated Using an innovative methodology she investigates the motivations of individuals who become peacebuilders their professional trajectories and networks and the good peacebuilder as an ideal For many working in peacebuilding in various ways as an aid worker on the ground as a lawyer at the United Nations or as an academic in a think tank has become not merely a livelihood but also a form of participation in world politics As a field peacebuilding has developed techniques for incorporating and training new members yet its internal politics also create the conditions of exclusion that often result in practical failures of the peacebuilding enterprise By providing a critical account of the social mechanisms that make up the peacebuilding field Goetze offers deep insights into the workings of Western domination and global inequalities

End of Upsetting Games

Lucien Nzeyimana,2014 Life is not always a bowl of cherries As the world we live in becomes more complex we face new challenges unforeseen and almost unimaginable only a generation ago Yet for those living in oppression little changes with time Jacob Barak was born and raised in Burundi where Evildoers treated members of his tribe as immoral beings Yet as a young boy he was full of joy and optimism As he grew and his horizons widened he saw the injustice his people were subjected to He witnessed firsthand soldiers and civilians pounding their country fellows with sledgehammers and rocks or stabbing them with butcher knives and bayonets Soldiers and cops could just kill innocent people burying many others alive Some of the killers were his schoolmates classmates neighbors or friends Others were their parents or siblings Victims were his relatives friends or just acquaintances and they were of all ages Professionals were the main targets of the Evildoers Assailants and their victims had much in common They were human beings and they were Burundians Most importantly they were created in the same image of God As innocent civilians including his own family were either killed or sent into hiding Jacob strived to make a change His life journey took him into many dangerous situations escaping certain death on several occasions He crossed the borders lakes and oceans to seek asylum in foreign countries only to see that once our basic needs are met we will always strive for more ultimately seeking peace and love After struggling in numerous refugee camps where he often slept under the open sky Jacob had finally had enough Now already an adult and a father he was determined that his children would live a different life away from hatred and injustice Still by moving to Canada a land of living blue skies as he liked to call it he did not find life a rose as he hoped Thus Nikita Chissocco his childhood friend seemed to be a dream come true She epitomized the joy he had lost a link to his homeland a friend a lover and a mother to his future children Little did he know that she would only bring misery to his life Always a free spirit she soon brought his old enemies into his life threatening his family but also his very life Jacob decided to end the upsetting games by chasing demons from his house And you how far are you prepared to go in order to fulfill your dreams
