Monday's Mysteries Larisa Long,2005-04 You are in danger as well Please heed my warning So begins the diary written by Catherine Morgan as she describes the events of a Monday in 1810 Regency England When another Catherine Morgan who lives in present day New York City receives the diary she is drawn into the mystery as the present Monday begins to resemble the Monday in 1810 Writing in the diary Catherine pleads for help by hinting this particular Monday can be changed as long as the day doesn't end the same way Catherine and her brother XJ desperately try to unravel the clues from 1810 but this is complicated since the chapters of the diary become visible only when the same events have taken place in the present When a betrayal endangers the lives of those in 1810 present day Catherine and XJ have less than 24 hours to uncover the mystery before the past repeats Unfortunately they think someone close to them might be conspiring to keep the mystery unsolved If their Monday ends the same way as the diary of 1810 the events of the past will be forever repeated

Report of the Speeches at the Dinner to Earl Grey, on Monday, 15th September, 1834 Charles Grey (2nd Earl Grey. [Appendix.]),S. M'Gregor,1834 Pastors, Preachers, Leaders and Teachers, Don't Quit on Monday Dr. Paul D. Stevens Sr.,2020-07-20 This book is written for Pastors and Ministry leaders who have been faithful to their calling I want to encourage these men and women to remain faithful to their vocation It goes without saying that ministry isn't always easy There are times when doing the work of the Lord can be overwhelming to the point of wanting to walk away from it all It is a fact that many who serve in ministry suffer from burnout stress and depression It is the intent of this author to share some of the reasons why pastors preachers and ministry leaders want to quit the ministry and why they need to re evaluate what they are doing and find ways to work smarter and not harder As you read through this book it is my hope that you learn two things First you are not alone when you feel like calling it quits and secondly you will find ways to slow down catch your breath and do what is necessary to have a refreshing and effective ministry The Musical Times and Singing-class Circular ,1927
