Chapter 3

Instructor's Manual

Chapter Objectives

Chapter 3, Financial Management, is a chapter that is a key component of the financial management course. It covers the financial management of the firm, including the financial management of the firm's capital structure, the financial management of the firm's working capital, and the financial management of the firm's risk management. The chapter is divided into three main sections: (1) the financial management of the firm's capital structure, (2) the financial management of the firm's working capital, and (3) the financial management of the firm's risk management.

This chapter should be covered after Chapter 1, Introduction, and Chapter 2, Financial Management.

Students should be able to do the following after this chapter:

1. Financial Management: Students should be able to identify the financial management of the firm, including the financial management of the firm's capital structure, the financial management of the firm's working capital, and the financial management of the firm's risk management.
2. Capital Structure: Students should be able to identify the financial management of the firm's capital structure, including the financial management of the firm's debt, the financial management of the firm's equity, and the financial management of the firm's capital structure.
3. Working Capital: Students should be able to identify the financial management of the firm's working capital, including the financial management of the firm's inventory, the financial management of the firm's accounts receivable, and the financial management of the firm's accounts payable.
4. Risk Management: Students should be able to identify the financial management of the firm's risk management, including the financial management of the firm's credit risk, the financial management of the firm's market risk, and the financial management of the firm's operational risk.
5. Financial Management: Students should be able to identify the financial management of the firm, including the financial management of the firm's capital structure, the financial management of the firm's working capital, and the financial management of the firm's risk management.
