Sheridan-Thomas, 2014-05-01 An authoritative teacher resource and widely adopted text this book provides a comprehensive overview of adolescent literacy instruction in the era of the Common Core State Standards CCSS Leading educators describe effective practices for motivating diverse learners in grades 5-12 building comprehension of multiple types of texts integrating literacy and content area instruction and teaching English language learners and struggling readers Case examples lesson planning ideas and end of chapter discussion questions and activities enhance the utility of the volume New to This Edition Extensive CCSS content incorporated throughout the book Chapters on disciplinary literacy text complexity and differentiated instruction Chapters on academic language writing instruction history and English language arts classrooms and coaching

Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano, 2015-09-28 If you're a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children's literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book is the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K-12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children's literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials

Communication in Accounting Education Richard M.S. Wilson, F. Elizabeth Gray, Lynn Hamilton, 2016-04-14 Accounting often described as the language of business requires a diverse set of written listening and oral communication skills if those who practise it are to be effective Given the pace of change relating to for example the evolution of international accounting standards and the demands for greater transparency accountants must be clear responsive and audience focussed communicators Employers of accountants consistently comment on the need for their new graduate recruits and trainees to have strong written oral and interpersonal communication skills In this light accounting educators face the challenge of designing and delivering programmes that reflect professional expectations on the part of employers and clients and educating students on how to make informed communication choices in order to achieve desired results and to build good working relationships The chapters in this book deal with such topics as accounting students perceptions of oral communication skills competence based writing skills and the development of listening skills This book was originally published as Accounting Education an international journal

Argumentative Writing in a Second Language Alan R. Hirvela,Diane Belcher,2021-12-13 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language is a collection on teaching argumentative writing offering multiple vantage points drawn from the contributors own teaching and research experiences The value of learning how to compose argumentative texts cannot be overstated and yet very little attention has been allocated to the equally important topic of how argumentation is or can be taught in the L2 context Thus this volume shifts attention to teachers and argumentative writing instruction especially within increasingly common multimodal and digital literacy settings While doing so it provides a comprehensive wide ranging view of the L2 argumentative writing landscape within an instructional lens Part I of the volume is topic oriented and focuses on explorations of important issues and perspectives while Part II features several chapters reporting classroom based studies of a variety of instructional approaches that expand our understanding of how argumentative writing can be taught The book will be of value to pre service and in service teachers in varying instructional contexts as well as teacher educators and L2 writing scholars researchers

What's Hot in Literacy Evan Ortlieb,Stephanie Grote-Garcia,Jack Cassidy,Earl H. Cheek Jr,2020-09-30 This book showcases hot topics in literacy providing teachers with practices for literacy improvement The international scholars which comprise the author line up for this edited collection describe the evidence based research findings from their research in K 12 schools to demonstrate how literacy success is fostered across the globe

Spelling Across Orthographies Teresa Limpo,Naymé Salas,Marie Van Reybroeck,Sao Luis Castro,2021-07-29

Connecting High-Leverage Practices to Student Success Melissa C. Jenkins,Wendy W. Murawski,2023-06-23 Transform classrooms and student performance with evidence based effective practices Two brains are better than one as the saying goes and this is especially true in education Educators who employ effective collaboration and co teaching greatly amplify student engagement achievement and growth particularly for those learners needing extra support Written by two of the nation s top experts in co teaching Connecting High Leverage Practices to Student Success is an essential reader friendly guide for educators and instructional leaders who are passionate about creating truly inclusive classrooms where all students thrive academically behaviorally socially and emotionally Inside authors Melissa Jenkins and Wendy Murawski provide Three clearly defined steps to build a strong foundation leverage collaboration and support students growth A laser focus on high leverage and evidence based practices for general and special education that optimize educators impact including collaboration instruction assessment and social emotional behavior skills Seamless integration of practices within MTSS and RTI processes to meet the needs of all learners Countless and concrete samples examples tools reflection exercises and supplemental materials that enable you to move from theory to immediate instructional practice Positioning collaboration as the catalyst to maximizing high leverage and evidence based practices for the success of all students this easy to use handbook belongs on the desk of every teacher working toward a truly inclusive environment      Common Core CPR ReLeah Cossett Lent, Barry Gilmore, 2013-09-27 The ideal Newly minted high school graduates all across the nation each one a complex text genius a writer and analytic thinker beyond compare All on to glorious colleges and careers thanks to the Common Core The reality The 1 3 million students who fail to graduate from high school each year and the hundreds of thousands more who either gave up or lost interest long ago The reality is why Common Core CPR is needed Urgently Because if we continue to insist that all students meet expectations that are well beyond their abilities and mindsets these kids will only decline faster We must be brave enough and trained enough to cast aside what we know harms students and apply with renewed vigor the teaching methods we know work Releah Lent and Barry Gilmore rise to the challenge and there are no two authors better equipped to do so They embrace what is best about the standards their emphasis on active authentic learning and then explicitly show teachers how to connect these ideal outcomes to practical classroom strategies detailing the day to day teaching that can coax reluctant learners into engagement and achievement You ll learn how to Consider choice and relevance in every assignment Plan and spot opportunities for success Scaffold students comprehension of complex fiction and nonfiction texts Model close reading through thoughtful questioning Teach students to use evidence in reading writing speaking and reflection And so much more It s not the big sweeping formulas for achievement that will win the day it s the incremental growth that teachers need to make happen that one book that one writing assignment to help a student turn a corner If we can get that one transformational moment to occur and follow it up by designing more opportunities for success that s the ideal say Lent and Gilmore
