English Achievement Question Of Edexcel Of Grade 5:

The administration of examinations for 15-19 year olds in England Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee,2012-07-03 This report from the Education Committee looks at the administration of examinations for 15 19 year olds in England The Committee expresses serious concerns about incentives in the exam system and about competition on syllabus content Incentives in the system should be changed so the downward pressure through the competition of exam boards is mitigated The Committee considers a number of options to change incentives including i A single board This offers a simpler system with no risk of competition but the Committee believes the cost risk and disruption outweigh the benefits ii Franchising of subjects to exam boards This removes syllabus competition but again has downsides 3 Or the current system of multiple boards The Committee sees no benefit in competition on syllabus content but the setting and marking of exams and associated administration if properly regulated could generate incentives and drive quality up offering value for money to schools and colleges The Committee also recommends the development of national syllabuses accredited by Ofqual The syllabuses would be developed by exam boards in conjunction with learned bodies and employer organisations and could therefore retain the benefits of competition on quality and the incentive for exam boards to innovate

Achievement and Inclusion in Schools Lani Florian,Martyn Rouse,Kristine Black Hawkins,2024-11-01 Winner of the nasen Special Educational Needs Academic Book award 2008 There is an enduring and widespread perception amongst policy makers and practitioners that certain groups of children in particular those who find learning difficult have a detrimental effect on the achievement of other children Challenging this basic assumption Achievement and Inclusion in Schools argues that high levels of inclusion can be entirely compatible with high levels of achievement and that combining the two is not only possible but essential if all children are to have the opportunity to participate fully in education Packed with vivid case studies that explore the benefits and tensions for children and schools this book sets out to answer the following questions What is the nature of the relationship between the inclusion of some children and the achievement of all Are there strategies which can raise the achievement of all children whilst safeguarding the inclusion of others who are more vulnerable What changes can a school make to ensure high levels of inclusion as well as high levels of achievement for all its children Achievement and Inclusion in Schools offers an up to date analysis of current issues provides practical guidance for practitioners and policy makers and will be of interest to anyone passionate about inclusive education (Free version)
