Structurally Scenes of Writing moves from teaching students how to observe a writing scene and its situations the readers writers purposes subjects and settings to analyzing and critiquing the genres used to participate within the situations and scenes. Students examine the textual patterns of genres content appeals structure format sentences words and what they reveal about the people who use the genres their values and beliefs the scenes in which the genres are used and the activities that take place there. The book also focuses students attention on the ways that they can critique existing genres and invites them to write differently to design changed genres that meet different goals or reinforce different values and beliefs. Students apply this knowledge to the analysis and production of genres in academic workplace and public contexts. Teachers and students alike will appreciate that the book's approach cultivates transferable skills by helping students use genre knowledge to read and write their way into different situations inside and outside of a writing class. Students learn how to read contexts and then turn that reading of context into their writing in context becoming more agile and astute writers who make informed writing choices as they negotiate among and participate in various scenes of writing.
