

CAREER ADVICE BY SEASONED PROFESSIONALS

Have you ever wanted to be a horror writer? Perhaps you've already realised that dream and you're looking to expand your repertoire. Writing comic books sounds nice, right? Or how about screenplays? Maybe you just want to see what goes on behind the scenes in the horror genre.

Not your typical writing guide, Horror 101 focuses more on the life of a horror writer. It covers not only insights into the horror genre, but also the people who successfully make a living from it. Writers such as Ramsey Campbell, Jack Ketchum, Graham Masterton, Lisa Morton, Edward Lee, Ellen Datlow and many, MANY more.

"Horror 101: The Way Forward – is sharp, witty and packed with crucial information for anyone who wants to take a real bite out of the horror genre. Two thumbs up!" – Jonathan Maberry, New York Times bestselling author of COD: ZERO and V-WARS

Unspeakable Things Unspoken Isabelle M. Hamley,2019-01-30 The story of the raped and murdered woman of Judges 19 and the civil war and mass marriage that ensue in chapters 20 21 are hardly favorite tales of the Hebrew Bible The chapters have often been dismissed as little more than an anachronistic epilogue an awkward amalgamation of earlier stories or a text of terror proof of patriarchal oppression This book argues that far from being a clumsy collage Judges 19 21 is a carefully narrated tale that chronicles the descent of a nation into extreme individualism and fragmentation In dialogue with continental philosopher Luce Irigaray it will uncover the dynamics of identity formation and how differential constructions of identity of the One and the Other yield patterns of victimization and justification of violence This literary philosophical reading will bring out silences and missed possibilities for the subjectivity of women whilst also shedding light on the victimization of men within the logic of totalitarian identity constructions The end of Judges therefore offers a theological conclusion to the book as a whole and opens up avenues for thought on theological anthropology understandings of identity and gender and a theological commentary on violence Movies and Mental Illness Danny Wedding,2023-11-06 The popular critically acclaimed text on psychopathology in movies now including the latest movies and more Explores films according to the diagnostic criteria of DSM 5 and ICD 11 Provides psychological ratings of nearly 1 500 films Includes downloadable teaching materials Films can be a powerful aid to learning about mental illness and psychopathology for practitioners and students in fields as diverse as psychology psychiatry social work medicine nursing counseling literature or media studies and for anyone interested in mental health Watching films relevant to mental health can actually help you become a more productive therapist and a more astute diagnostician Movies and Mental Illness written by an eminent clinical psychologist who is also a movie aficionado has established a reputation as a uniquely enjoyable and highly memorable text for learning about psychopathology This new edition has been completely revised to explore current issues such as children s screentime and celebrities with mental illness and to include the numerous films that have been released since the last edition The core clinical chapters raise provocative questions about differential diagnosis according to the DSM 5 and ICD 11 for the primary characters portrayed in the films Included are also a full index of films sample course syllabus ratings of close to 1 500 films fascinating appendices such as Top 50 Heroes and Villains psychotherapists in movies and misconceptions about mental illness in movies Accompanying the new edition are downloadable resources for teachers that include critical questions and topics for discussion as well as fabricated case histories based on movie characters with Mini

Mental State Examinations that help explain teach and encourage discussion about important mental health disorders In addition the author plans a regular series of online Spotlights articles that will critically examine the psychological content of new movies as they are released
