Engaging in Educational Research Raqib Chowdhury,Mahbub Sarkar,Foez Mojumder,M Moninoor Roshid,2018-10-01 This book reflects the paradigm shift now manifesting in Bangladesh s education system by highlighting recent empirical research It shares essential insights by presenting research conducted on diverse aspects of current day education in Bangladesh including policy and governance equity access and participation curriculum and pedagogy assessment and education programs and projects run by NGOs Further it offers a platform for these unique studies to be showcased and disseminated to scholars and researchers from developing and developed countries alike and represents a unique reference resource for the education research community in Bangladesh Asia and all over the world With Foreword from Professor Serajul Islam Choudhury The Supreme Court of Ghana Law Reports ,2015 , The Hague Judgments Convention and Commonwealth Model Law Abubakri Yekini,2021-08-12 This book undertakes a systematic analysis of the 2019 Hague Judgments Convention the 2005 Hague Choice of Court Convention 2005 and the 2017 Commonwealth Model Law on recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments from a pragmatic perspective The book builds on the concept of pragmatism in private international law within the context of recognition and enforcement of judgments It demonstrates the practical application of legal pragmatism by setting up a toolbox pragmatic goals and methods that will assist courts and policymakers in developing an effective and efficient judgments enforcement scheme at national bilateral and multilateral levels Practitioners national courts policymakers academics students and litigants will benefit from the book s comparative approach using case law from the United Kingdom and other leading Commonwealth States the United States and the Court of Justice of the European Union The book also provides interesting findings from the empirical research on the refusal of recognition and enforcement in the UK and the Commonwealth statutory registration schemes respectively Secured Transactions Law Reform Louise Gullifer,Orkun Akseli,2016-10-20 Secured transactions law has been subjected to a close scrutiny over the last two decades One of the main reasons for this is the importance of availability of credit and the consequent need to reform collateral laws in order to improve access to finance The ability to give security effectively influences not only the cost of credit but also in some cases whether credit will be available at all This requires rules that are transparent and readily accessible to non lawyers as well as rules that recognise the needs of small and medium sized enterprises This book critically engages with the challenges posed by inefficient secured credit laws It offers a comparative analysis of the reasons and the needs for a secured transactions law reform as well as discussion of the steps taken in many common law civil law and mixed law jurisdictions The book written under the auspices of the Secured Transactions Law Reform Project informs the debate about reform and advances novel arguments written by world renowned experts that will build upon the existing literature and as such will be of interest to academics legal practitioners and the judiciary involved in secured transactions law around the world The text considers reform initiatives that have taken place up to the end of April 2016 It has not been possible to incorporate events since then into the discussion However notable developments include the banks decree passed by the Italian Government on 29th June 2016 and the adoption of the Model Law on Secured Transactions by UNCITRAL on 1st July 2016
