Congress. House. Committee on enforcement Appropriations. Subcommittee on District of Columbia Appropriations, 1976 The Metropolitan Police and the British Film Industry, 1919-1956 Alex Rock, 2023-06-15 This groundbreaking book investigates the murky relationship between the Metropolitan Police Press Bureau and the British film industry shedding new light on police media relations Beginning with the culture of suppression during the interwar period when retired police inspectors were threatened with loss of pension should they become involved with the film industry the relationship shifted when a forgotten pioneer of public relations Percy Fearnley was appointed to the role of Metropolitan Police Public Information Officer in 1945 Fearnley was the first ever journalist to take up this role and through him the Metropolitan Police embarked on a series of collaborations with the highest echelons of postwar British cinema including J Arthur Rank Ealing Studios and Gainsborough Studios Using newly declassified internal Metropolitan Police and Home Office correspondence Alexander Charles Rock tells the story of the Metropolitan Police's project to manipulate the British film industry into producing propaganda under the guise of mainstream entertainment cinema In doing so he offers a radical re reading of the context of production of a number of canonical British films such as The Blue Lamp 1950 I Believe In You 1952 and Street Corner 1953 The Scottish Police Officer Daniel Donnelly, 2014-05-16 The structure of policing is undergoing change in Scotland at present and the profile of the police officer differs from that of the past This book takes an informative approach and offers a unique account and insight into the Scottish police organisation describing the Scottish police officer from the point of recruitment through to training development and specialist policing Written by an ex senior police officer this book examines how the qualified police officer goes about his her daily work policing and how this has changed over time as a result of organised crime terrorism and the changing priorities of the public and politicians. The contribution of non police officers such as police civilian staff auxiliaries and the private sector plays a key role in the policing of Scotland in the 21st century and is considered at length As police supervision and management is crucial to the organisation s success the subjects of personnel development promotion and management in the police is examined with comment on the suitability of the system in the 21st century The book concludes with commentary on the future profile of the Scottish police officer and makes some general comparison with their colleagues in the rest of the UK and European Union This will be an essential text for police officers in Scotland and elsewhere and students and academics in the areas of law politics management police studies criminology and Department of Corrections, courts, liscenses and inspections, metropolitan police, highways and traffic, Department of Motor Vehicles, sanitary engineering, Washington aqueduct, Department of Public Health. 1963. pp. 2265-2902 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations, 1963 Women in Policing Emma Cunningham, 2021-08-11 Women in Policing provides an insight into women's role within policing their emergence and development offering a theoretical underpinning to explore this role as well as incorporating two empirical studies one which reassesses the lived experiences of female officers and one based on FOI requests to examine police officer disciplinary offences in three police force areas The book begins by exploring some of the history of ideas in relation to ideas about women and their supposed nature Cunningham shows how a variety of feminist ideas and critique are of vital importance in illuminating and critiquing the place of women within this field and provides a feminist lens with which to explore these themes critically The book also examines the re emergence of these ideas about women in current women and policing literature Together exploration of these sources using a feminist conceptual framework facilitates a new rich analysis that is both reflective and reflexive culminating in a novel snapshot of the place of women in policing in England She argues that accepting both institutional racism and institutional misogyny are vital in approaching transformational change in policing practice The book concludes with a discussion around how these findings can help with police confidence and legitimacy in the future A fundamental examination of the ideas underpinning how women s integration and continuation in policing has happened where it is currently and where it may go Women in Policing will be of great interest to police practitioners and students as well as Criminology Sociology and Law and Policing scholars Hearings United States.
