

CHURCH MINISTRY REPORT TEMPLATES

Report of the Year's Ministry Period: 01/2004 through 12/2004

MISSIONS AND MINISTRY: To provide leadership and direction to our church as Christ's command ministry, dedicated to making men righteous and preparing them for eternal leadership in their homes, church and community.

It is our belief that this is the only other ministry is organized and that what we must do is to become missionaries by facilitating the gathering together of people both in large and small groups. It is for this reason that we do many of the business that we do.

Year, Year and a Ministry: MIMM is a monthly function where men get together and have different tasks to do. We're doing everything that we can, making plans, making things get much more. The chairman of the ministry is John Miller. We usually meet on the 1st Monday.

The annual Year's Ministry was held on January 1st through the 31st. There were 41 men in attendance and our speaker was someone, called, called him speaker and told of their testimony and how they were doing. There were two men that accepted Christ as Savior at the annual for year. We will be coming to this field on April 1st to do a service and taking people with the new ministry. We will also be speaking and teaching on Sunday.

Ministry Family Night is another special event where people come and have a relaxing time of food, fellowship, music and the making of geographical friends. It's a fun time and 174 people showed up.

We were well served by TMI and the Fellowship. We also did several other meals during the year.

The Friday evening Bible Study has averaged 10 to 12 men. We are currently in the Book of Genesis.

In this ministry we realize the importance of men being with each other. We want the men of this Ministry become leaders and servants, but we also want them to experience our joy. We realize that you are not something that we want other men to have but is a product of relationships.

MacArthur in Asia Hiroshi Masuda,2012-11-15 General Douglas MacArthur's storied career is inextricably linked to Asia His father Arthur served as Military Governor of the Philippines while Douglas was a student at West Point and the younger MacArthur would serve several tours of duty in that country over the next four decades becoming friends with several influential Filipinos including the country's future president Emanuel L Quezon In 1935 he became Quezon's military advisor a post he held after retiring from the U S Army and at the time of Japan's invasion of 1941 As Supreme Commander for the Southwest Pacific MacArthur led American forces throughout the Pacific War He officially accepted Japan's surrender in 1945 and would later oversee the Allied occupation of Japan from 1945 to 1951 He then led the UN Command in the Korean War from 1950 to 1951 until he was dismissed from his post by President Truman In MacArthur in Asia the distinguished Japanese historian Hiroshi Masuda offers a new perspective on the American icon focusing on his experiences in the Philippines Japan and Korea and highlighting the importance of the general's staff the famous Bataan Boys who served alongside MacArthur throughout the Asian arc of his career to both MacArthur's and the region's history First published to wide acclaim in Japanese in 2009 and translated into English for the first time this book uses a wide range of sources American and Japanese official records and oral histories to present a complex view of MacArthur one that illuminates his military decisions during the Pacific campaign and his administration of the Japanese Occupation

Inferior Office Francis Young,2015-04-30 In spite of the centrality of the threefold orders of bishop priest and deacon to Anglicanism deacons have been virtually invisible in the contemporary Church of England Inferior Office is the first complete history of this neglected portion of the clergy tracing the church's changing theology of the diaconate from the Ordinal of 1550 to the present day Francis Young skilfully overturns the widely held belief that before the twentieth century the diaconate was merely a brief and nominal period of probation for priests revealing how it became an integral part of the Elizabethan defence of conformity and exploring the diverse range of ministries assumed by lifelong deacons in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Lifelong deacons often belonged to a marginalised lower class of the clergy that has since been forgotten an oversight of considerable importance to the wider social history of the clergy that is corrected in this volume Inferior Office tells the story of persistent calls for the revival of a distinctive diaconate within the Victorian Church of England and situates the institution of deaconesses and later revival of the distinctive diaconate for women as well as subsequent developments within their wider historical context Set against this backdrop Young presents a balanced case both for and against the further development of a distinctive diaconate today offering much to further discussion and debate amongst clergy of the Church of England and all those with an interest in the rich tapestry of its history
