Bantu Authorities Veronica Ehrenreich-Risner, 2022-02-18 In Bantu Authorities Apartheid's System of Race and Ethnicity Veronica Ehrenreich Risner provides the first holistic study of the Bantu Authorities BA system that implemented rural apartheid. The system extended segregation by including ethnos theory to establish underfunded self-governing homelands to curb the expense of native administration yet retain control of the cheap labor upon which white capital depended. Based on over sixty interviews with Zulus and former commissioners and archival research, Bantu Authorities proves the primary objective of the system was to protect white capital with white racial purity. Secondary, Ehrenreich Risner argues that the system disrupted the Brownlee tradition of guardianship for commissioners and the tradition of reciprocity for ubukhosi. Bantu Authorities ends by examining the lingering consequences of rural apartheid and asks what rural Africans have gained with majority rule when they remain bound to BA structures.

Innovations in Bio-Inspired Computing and Applications Ajith Abraham, Anu Bajaj, Niketa Gandhi, Ana Maria Madureira, Cengiz Kahraman, 2023-03-27 This book highlights recent research on bio-inspired computing and its various innovative applications in information and communication technologies. It presents 85 high-quality papers from the 13th International Conference on Innovations in Bio-Inspired Computing and Applications (IBICA 2022) and 12th World Congress on Information and Communication Technologies (WICT 2022) which was held online during 15-17 December 2022. As a premier conference, IBICA WICT brings together researchers, engineers, and practitioners whose work involves bio-inspired computing, computational intelligence, and their applications in information security, real-world contexts, etc. Including contributions by authors from 25 countries, the book offers a valuable reference guide for all researchers, students, and practitioners in the fields of Computer Science and Engineering.

Financial Mail, 2004 Umxoxi, 1993 Applications of Essential Oils in the Food Industry Charles Oluwaseun Adetunji, Javad Sharifi-Rad, 2023-12-02 Applications of Essential Oils in the Food Industry delivers detailed information on the application of essential oils derived from underutilized crops and herbs for the development, preservation, and safety of food products. The book covers post-harvest fruits and vegetables and their adjuvant and plasticizers when applied as an edible coating, as well as their mechanism of action as preservatives for foods such as fish, meats, and yogurts. The book highlights the use of essential oils as anti-microbials, bio-preservatives, and antioxidants and also examines their effectiveness against several food-borne pathogens and in enhancing the aroma of food products. Presents the latest research information on essential oils as anti-microbials, bio-preservatives, and antioxidants. Describes how essential oils can be used for the management of mycotoxins, especially for the management of toxigenic strains producing higher levels of aflatoxin. Includes information on the utilization of essential oils in beverages, drinks, and semi-liquid foods. Demonstrates the synergistic effect of nanotechnology together with essential oils, including information on nano-ceutical, nano-emulsion, and nano-pharmacology.

Music, Culture, and the Politics of Health Austin C. Okigbo, 2016-08-03 This book is an ethnographic study of a HIV AIDS choir who use music to articulate their individual and collective experiences of the disease The study interrogates as to understand the bigger picture of HIV AIDS using the approach of microanalysis of music event It places the choir and the cultural and political issues addressed in their music in the broader context of South Africa s public health and political history and the global culture and politics of AIDS Orality, Literacy, and Colonialism in Southern Africa Jonathan A. Draper,2004-01-01 Literacy is essentially about the control of information memory and belief and with colonialism in Southern Africa came the Bible and text based literacy monitored by missionaries and colonial authorities Old and new oral traditions however are beyond the control of empire and often carry the resistance hopes and dreams of colonized people The essays in this volume recover aspects of Southern Africa s rich oral tradition The authors from disciplines such as anthropology African literature and biblical studies delineate some of the contours of the indigenous knowledge systems which sustained resistance to colonialism and today provide resources for postapartheid society in Southern Africa Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org Insiders and Outsiders Francis B. Nyamnjoh,2008-02-29 This study of xenophobia and how it both exploits and excludes is an incisive commentary on a globalizing world and its consequences for ordinary people s lives Using the examples of Sub Saharan Africa s two most economically successful nations it meticulously documents the fate of immigrants and the new politics of insiders and outsiders As globalization becomes a palpable reality citizenship sociality and belonging are subjected to stresses to which few societies have devised a civil response beyond yet more controls Cultural Producers In Perilous States George E. Marcus,1997-03-02 Ten innovative interviews explore how producers of documentary media filmmakers journalists and artists located in societies considered marginal to the high tech global centers respond to local and international audiences in creating their works We meet a South African playwright who is shaping a distinctive form of activist journalism a New Guinean producer who manages several media careers Polish and German filmmakers developing critical documentaries on compromised new orders a Columbian artist who provides powerful representations of endemic violence in her society and writers from Martinique and Argentina with varied careers in the arts media and politics who provide tragicomic accounts of the marginal situations of their societies Cynical hopeful ambivalent all at once these cultural producers in perilous states share a keen awareness of the marginality of their societies in the broader context of global change and associate integrity in the reporting of local events with a critical politics of representation South Africa News Update ,1992 Consists of reproductions of articles from South African newspapers Proceedings of The Focus Conference (TFC 2022) Manyane Makua,Mariam Akinlolu,Mashango Sithole,Phiwayinkosi Gumede,Cebo Nyondo,2023-02-08 This is an open access book It is a common cause globally that the abrupt emergence of Covid 19 wreaked havoc in all sectors including the higher education system The sudden closure of campuses as a social distancing measure to prevent community transmission has shifted face to face classes to online teaching and learning a transformative experiment for academics and students in most institutions This has thrown the focus on utilising Learning Management Systems LMS eLearning tools and platforms for effective student engagement which may have limitations of accessibility and affordability for many students The pandemic has exposed the shortcomings of the current higher education system and the need for more training of academics and practitioners in digital technology to adapt to the rapidly changing educational climate In the post pandemic situation eLearning and virtual education may become an integral part of the higher education system hence the question of re inventing higher education The higher education institutions and universities need to plan the post pandemic education and research strategies to ensure student learning outcomes and standards of educational quality With the move to online teaching and learning subsequently traditional assessments followed and were adapted and adopted for online assessment Assessments lie at the heart of the teaching process It shapes students understanding of the curriculum and determines their ability to progress Reflections on assessments during Covid 19 abounded with the challenges that both academics and students faced regarding online assessments including cheating and quality assurance issues The focus on quality extended to the quality of teaching and learning in general Moreover the pandemic brought about the question of staff and student health and psychosocial support also became important For academics the abrupt shift to adapt to working from home and implementing online learning has led to over work low work life balance and compromised mental health With a view on constructive and futuristic discourse the sub themes of the 2022 Focus conference encapsulate the current realities in the higher education sector and beyond It further provides opportunities for an in depth analysis based on the benefit of hindsight and foresight The Organising Committee specifically coined the theme Re inventing higher education Insights trends and lessons learnt from specifically for the conference to reflect on and address the matters mentioned earlier Academics scholars and practitioners in the higher education sector are called upon to share their research and express their perspectives on the reinvention of higher education

Sociology in South Africa R. Sooryamoorthy, 2016-08-13 This book is the first comprehensive account of the history and current state of South African sociology Providing a holistic picture of the subject both as it is taught in universities and as a field of research it reveals the trajectories of a discipline in a challenging socio political context With the support of historical and scientometric data it demonstrates how the changing political situation from colonialism to apartheid to democracy has influenced the nature direction and foci of sociological research in the country The author shows how during the apartheid era sociology was professionally fragmented and divided along language and race lines It was however able to flourish with the advent of democracy in 1994 and has become a unique academic movement This insightful work will appeal to students and scholars of the social sciences and all those interested in the history and society of South Africa

Conversations and Soliloquies Maurice Hommel, 2012-02-21 In the midst of apartheid in South Africa journalist Maurice Hommel documented the cruel injustices and tensions running rampant within the country What he saw forever impacted his life Conversations and Soliloquies presents a collection of Hommels essays and articles from the last fifty five years documenting and analyzing South African history during and after apartheid Over time the essays illuminate in sometimes graphic detail the anti apartheid struggle that defined South Africa for decades Beginning with the Sharpeville Massacre of 1960 Hommel delves into the bloody history of apartheid and traces how it pervaded every segment of society His interviews with prominent South Africans including Desmond Tutu and Neville Alexander offer intimate glimpses into the thoughts of those working for change In addition stark photographs capture the emotions of the time In its breadth of historical perspectives this collection is a significant contribution to an understanding of South Africa's evolution to a nonracial nonsexist democratic country Although lingering prejudices and smoldering resentments remain Hommel carries an unshakable optimism of South Africa's enormous potential Conversations and Soliloquies captures that hope

Evolution of environmental economics & management in the age of artificial intelligence for sustainable development Elena G. Popkova, Bruno Sergi, Aleksei V. Bogoviz, 2023-06-06

Africa's Development Impasse Stefan Andreasson, 2010-02-11 Orthodox strategies for socio economic development have failed spectacularly in Southern Africa Neither the developmental state nor neoliberal reform seems able to provide a solution to Africa's problems In Africa's Development Impasse Stefan Andreasson analyses this failure and explores the potential for post development alternatives Examining the post independence trajectories of Botswana Zimbabwe and South Africa the book shows three different examples of this failure to overcome a debilitating colonial legacy Andreasson then argues that it is now time to resuscitate post development theory's challenge to conventional development In doing this he claims we face the enormous challenge of translating post development into actual politics for a socially and politically sustainable future and using it as a dialogue about what the aims and aspirations of post colonial societies might become This important fusion of theory with empirical case studies will be essential reading for students of development politics and Africa
