Representations of China in Latin American Literature \(1987-2016\) Maria Montt Strabucchi, 2023-11-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM Representations of China in Latin American Literature 1987 2016 analyses contemporary Latin American novels in which China is the main theme Using China as a multidimensional term it explores how the novels both highlight and undermine assumptions about China that have shaped Latin America s understanding of China and shows China to be a kind of literary imaginary third term which reframes Latin American discourses of alterity On one level it argues that these texts play with the way that China stands in as a wandering signifier and as a metonym for Asia a gesture that essentialises it as an unchanging other On another level it argues that the novels employment of China resists essentialist constructions of identity China is thus shown to be serving as a concept which allows for criticism of the construction of fetishized otherness and of the exclusion inherent in essentialist discourses of identity The book presents and analyses the depiction of an imaginary of China which is arguably performative but which discloses the tropes and themes which may be both established and subverted in the novels Chapter One examines the way in which China is represented and constructed in Latin American novels where this country is a setting for their stories The novels studied in Chapter Two are linked to the presence of Chinese communities in Latin America The final chapter

Sovereignty Unhinged Deborah A. Thomas, Joseph Masco, 2023-01-18 Sovereignty Unhinged theorizes sovereignty beyond the typical understandings of action control and the nation state Rather than engaging with the geopolitical realities of the present the contributors consider sovereignty from the perspective of how it is lived and enacted in everyday practice and how it reflects people's aspirations for new futures In a series of ethnographic case studies ranging from the Americas to the Middle East to South Asia they examine the means of avoiding the political and historical capture that make one complicit with sovereign authority rather than creating the conditions of possibility to confront it The contributors attend to the affective dimensions of these practices of world building to illuminate the epistemological ontological and transnational entanglements that produce a sense of what is possible They also trace how sovereignty is activated and deactivated over the course of a lifetime within the struggle of the everyday In so doing they outline how individuals create and enact forms of sovereignty that allow them to endure fast and slow forms of violence while embracing endless opportunities for building new worlds Contributors Alex Blanchette Yarimar Bonilla Jessica Cattelino Mar a Elena Garc a Akhil Gupta Lochlann Jain Purnima Mankekar Joseph Masco Michael Ralph Danilyn Rutherford Arjun Shankar Kristen L Simmons Deborah A Thomas Leniqueca A Welcome Kaya Naomi Williams Jessica Winegar
