almost solely on the bottom line test scores To see if this world is producing better students Linda Perlstein immersed herself the same narrative gifts and expertise that made Not Much Just Chillin so illuminating The school once deemed a failure is now held up as an example of reform done right Perlstein explores the rewards and costs of that transformation through the experiences of the people who lived it Nine year olds meditate to activate their brains before exams and kindergartners write paragraphs Teachers attempt to address diverse needs at the same time they are expected to follow daily scripts and feel compelled to focus on topics that will be tested at the expense of those that won't The principal attempts to keep it all
