Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience Non-Cognitive Factors and Learning within a Business Simulation Tanja Kreitenweis, 2021-10-22 Serious games can provide a convenient and straightforward access to complex knowledge for all age groups However learning achievements depend largely on learners non cognitive factor disposition With the aim of combining the fields of serious games and non cognitive factors this research focuses on the use of a business simulation which conveys change management insights Business simulations are a subset of serious games and are perceived as a non traditional learning method. The objectives of this work are versatile 1 developing a scale which measures learners knowledge and skills increase gained from a business simulation 2 investigating the effects of non cognitive factors on learning in this business simulation environment and 3 exploring the moderating role of team preference in this type of learning setting Using the newly developed scale this work finds that learners skills and knowledge states are more pronounced after playing the business simulation Progress Toward Agenda 2030 Danielle Lane, Nicholas Catania, Sarah Semon, 2023-09-20 At the midway point towards the United Nations UN Agenda 2030 this critical volume focuses on how a range of contextually diverse countries are progressing towards inclusive education Contributors critically consider the current state of inclusive education in their own countries in relation to meeting the UN s Agenda 2030 initiative and Sustainable Development Goal 4 The foundation is set in chapter one by the editors with a historical overview of inclusion and inclusive policies globally Key international scholars critique the history and status of inclusion in their respective contexts In reference to local research they explore the history of inclusion the current policies and state of inclusion barriers and levers for inclusion and look towards the future of inclusive education Chapters demonstrate how the continued call for a shift towards inclusive education in different countries is extremely complex and varies greatly within each international context Attention is given to levers promoting inclusion through contextually appropriate international initiatives and the importance of the realignment of policies and practices if all countries are to achieve the 2030 UN s education goal Progress Toward Agenda 2030 serves to challenge all educational stakeholders to critically consider analyze and innovate policies and practices for inclusive education for all by 2030 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1864 Irish Education Antonia McManus,2014-07-07 In this important new work the author analyses the contributions that our Ministers for Education made to the Irish education system between the years 1919 and 1999 Covering the social economic and political realities of the time and taking in the involvement of the OECD what emerges is a picture of how Irish education was shaped and moulded over the course of the twentieth century Business Studies ,2008

The Top Books of the Year Matric 2014 Business Studies June Exam The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read: Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Matric 2014 Business Studies June Exam: Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic: Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a guiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
