measurements Family, Children, and Tourism in China Mimi Li,Xinran Lehto,2021-12-14 This edited volume explores various issues in family tourism studies and complements the dramatic development of this market segment in China The book concentrates on family and children tourism and through its chapters hopes to enrich the landscape of family tourism in academia The family market in tourism has received increasing attention over past decades Yet academic endeavors in this area remain somewhat lacking in depth and scope In addition to imbalanced contributions from authors of diverse backgrounds the extant literature suffers from insufficient inclusion of children Relevant studies are largely limited to conventional tourism destinations such as beaches and cultural attractions In response to growing academic interest in family tourism this book is a compilation of eight chapters that attempt to push the scope and boundaries of existing research on family tourism The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of China Tourism Research Handbook of Attitudes, Volume 2: Applications Dolores Albarracin,Blair T. Johnson,2018-10-10 Attitudes are evaluations of people places things and ideas They help us to navigate through a complex world They provide guidance for decisions about which products to buy how to travel to work or where to go on vacation They color our perceptions of others Carefully crafted interventions can change attitudes and behavior Yet attitudes beliefs and behavior are often formed and changed in casual social exchanges The mere perception that other people say rich people favor something may be sufficient to make another person favor it People s own actions also influence their attitudes such that they adjust to be more supportive of the actions People s belief systems even change to align with and support their preferences which at its extreme is a form of denial for which people lack awareness These two volumes of The Handbook of Attitudes provide authoritative critical surveys of theory and research about attitudes beliefs persuasion and behavior from key authors in these areas This second volume covers applications to measurement behavior prediction and interventions in the areas of cancer HIV substance use diet and exercise as well as in politics intergroup relations aggression migrations advertising accounting education and the environment Consumer Behavior in the Internet Era Gong Sun,Lester Johnson,Jie Li,2022-11-28 Routledge International Handbook of Consumer Psychology Cathrine V. Jansson-Boyd,Magdalena J. Zawisza,2016-11-18 This unique handbook maps the growing field of consumer psychology in its increasingly global context With contributions from over 70 scholars across four continents the book reflects the cross cultural and multidisciplinary character of the field Chapters relate the key consumer concepts to the progressive globalization of markets in which consumers act and consumption takes place The book is divided into seven sections offering a truly comprehensive reference work that covers The historical foundations of the discipline and the rise of globalization The role of cognition and multisensory perception in consumers judgements The social self identity and well being including their relation to advertising Social and cultural influences on consumption including politics and religion Decision making attitudes and behaviorally based research Sustainable consumption and the role of branding The particularities of online settings in framing and affecting behavior The Routledge International Handbook of Consumer Psychology will be essential reading for anyone interested in how the perceptions feelings and values of consumers interact with the decisions they make in relation to products and services in a global context It will also be key reading for students and researchers across psychology and marketing as well as professionals interested in a deeper understanding of the field Consumer Behaviour and Digital Transformation Ayantunji Gbadamosi,2024-03-11 This comprehensive textbook explores how technological developments and emerging technologies impact on and engage with consumer behaviour and decision making globally The book will enable readers to develop a coherent understanding of the basic underpinnings of consumer behaviour as they relate to individual and group oriented consumption decisions offering insight into how consumer behaviour contemporary real life situations and digital technology are inextricably linked Key learning objectives exercises and activities boxed examples and analytical frameworks facilitate and enrich students learning Each chapter includes pause plan and practice PPP activities as well as real life case studies exploring digital consumption digital consumer experiences and digital trends across industries from global companies such as Nike and McDonald s to the digital transformation of SMEs Combining a thorough examination of traditional theory with a fresh approach to the impact of digital transformation on consumer behaviour this textbook should be core reading for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students studying Consumer Behaviour Consumer Psychology Customer Experience Management and Digital Marketing This book will be accompanied by online resources for the use of instructors including PowerPoint slides and a test bank
