Metaphysics and the Sciences in Nineteenth-Century France ,2025-07-22 This volume is the first systematic study of the style of reasoning specific to the field of philosophy in nineteenth century France The chapters analyze the often dispersed responses to the fundamental question of the division of the sciences based on the reciprocal relationships of inclusion or exclusion of adversity or sorority between metaphysics and the positive sciences In line with the arrhythmic progress of the different forms of knowledge these responses renew the Condillacian criticisms of the Cartesian order of the relationships between metaphysics and physics Between a pronounced divorce and a successful marriage this volume traces the philosophical history of the various attempts at divorce or union which as the century progressed resulted in original hybridizations that aspired to define a new and ever problematic French philosophy

Optiques Andrea

Goulet,2013-04-05 Andrea Goulet takes the study of the novel into the realm of the visual by situating it in the context of nineteenth century scientific and philosophical discourse about the nature of sight She argues that French realism detective fiction science fiction and literature of the fantastic from 1830 to 1910 reflected competition between two modern visual modes a not yet outdated idealism and an empiricism that located truth in the body More specifically the book argues that key narrative forms of the nineteenth century were shaped by a set of scientific debates between idealism and materialism in Honor Balzac's Com die humaine between deduction and induction in early French detective fiction and between objective vision and subjective vision in the optogram fictions of Jules Verne and others Goulet aims to revise critical views on the modern novel in a number of ways For instance although many literary studies focus on the impact of cinema photography and painting Optiques asserts the materialist bases of realism by establishing a genealogy of popular fictional genres as fundamentally optical that is as articulated according to bodily notions of sight With its chronological and interdisciplinary scope Optiques stands to contribute an important chapter to the study of literary modernity in its scientific context

Jeering Dreamers John Anzalone,2023-04-17 The re emergence in recent years of Villiers de l'Isle Adam as a key figure in fin de siècle literature can be attributed in large part to the intense interest his prescient l'Eve future 1886 has generated among scholars In effect the novel confronts with breathtaking focus central taboos and ambivalences about the decadent period It posits an inescapable mechanistic linkage between desire and technology it suggests the constructed nature of gender it casts woman down so as to exalt her even as it intimates the arbitrariness and fragility of the empowerment prerogatives implicit in such an operation It is this mine for the study of fin de siècle mentalities that the present volume explores Begun at the 1992 NCFS colloquium at Binghamton University as a collective project of the Friends of Villiers Jeering Dreamers brings together 13 essays by Villiers scholars from both sides of the Atlantic Their work promises in the words of the eminent Villierien Alan Raftt to clairer l'Eve future d'un jour nouveau ou plus exactement de plusieurs jours nouveaux
