Asano, 2005-05-17 The issue of community identity construction in Galatians is considered using two methods first by applying anthropological theories to the mechanism and natures of community identity and its construction and second by comparing the Galatian community with another minority religious community Asano argues that Paul s effort at identity construction is partially conditioned by his self awareness as an autonomous apostle and by the external pressures of the significant groups elsewhere Paul s conflict depicted in Galatians 2 and projected upon the Galatian situation is understood as a conflict between the ethno centred and the instrumental mode of community constructions the latter of which is free from the constraints of core ethnic sentiment Galatians 4 21 31 is identified as a conceptual framework or recreated worldview for the community members to be assured of their authentic existence under marginalizing pressure This recreated worldview is ritually acted out in baptism with the egalitarian motif Gal 3 28 to help internalize the authentic identity Finally Paul s letter is suggested to have functioned as a physical locus of community identity Thus the autographic marker Gal 6 11 directs the attention of the audience not only to the conceptual content but to the presence of the founding important concepts as text grammar textual hierarchy communicational and actantial analysis on the one hand and prosodic hierarchy and Hebrew versification on the other emerge from this discussion The second part of the book discusses diachronical matters such as the redactional process its theological and pastoral significance and the hermeneutical implications of such diachronical study Of special interest are the additional sections on the issues of the so called woe cry

Aernie,2011-09-16 In this book Matthew Aernie argues that Paul intentionally used forensic language allusions and idioms throughout 2 Thessalonians 1 in order to encourage the persecuted church to remain steadfast as they waited for their vindication at the final assize To support this thesis Aernie suggests that such judicial language and allusions are intertextual parallels originating primarily from the Day of the Lord motif found throughout the Old Testament and maintains that the Day of the Lord concept was understood by the author of the Thessalonian correspondence as a reference to the day when the Lord would render righteous verdicts upon those who had both obeyed and disobeyed him Furthermore Aernie argues that the author of 2 Thessalonians likely understood the Day of the Lord to be consummated at the Parousia of Christ when the final court would convene Therefore borrowing from the judicial concept apparent in the Day of the Lord motif Aernie concludes that the author utilized forensic language throughout 2 Thessalonians 1 to exhort the church to remain faithful amidst great opposition as they awaited their ultimate justification at God s eschatological tribunal The American Organist ,1995 Standard Catalog of Ford, 1903-2002 John Gunnell,2011-09-27 The Standard Catalog of Ford delivers all the details you need to enjoy your hobby and love your Ford Inside you ll find information about all of the legendary Fords built from 1903 2002 Mustangs Thunderbirds the Model T and A Falcons Fairlanes Skyliners and more This fact filled book provides collector market values for Fords made during 1903 2002 It also gives Ford collectors the data they need to identify buy restore and invest in collectable Fords including a current market price guide showing values in Old Cars Report Price Guide s comprehensive 1 to 6 grading scale complete year by year model listings with history and technical details thousands of photos for easy model identification and option lists engine information original pricing and production information
