Academics' International Teaching Journeys Anesa Hosein, Namrata Rao, Chloe Shu-Hua Yeh, Ian M. Kinchin, 2018-06-14 Academics International Teaching Journeys provides personal narratives of nine international social science academics in foreign countries as they adapt and develop their teaching The team of international contributors provide an invaluable resource for other academics who may be exposed to similar situations and may find these narratives useful in negotiating their own conflicts and challenges that they may encounter in being an international academic The narratives provide a fascinating reference point and a wide range of perspectives of teaching experiences from across the world including Europe Australia North America and the Caribbean The book offers a timely spotlight on contemporary issues of globalisation that many higher education institutions around the world may encounter It contributes to the originality of constructing new knowledge in the field of transnational higher education a modern phenomenon which will be increasingly prominent in the current and next generation in the globalised higher education contexts The New International Lesson Annual

2014-2015 Nan Duerling, 2014-05-20 Years of reader evaluations yield a record of overwhelming positive teaching results Teachers agree that The New International Lesson Annual gets highest marks for helping Christian educators in the classroom making Scripture understood relating Scripture to contemporary living and challenging students to respond with positive actions Based on the Bible study foundations of America's leading ecumenical Bible educators and editors in the venerable Committee on Uniform Series Lessons for a full year include analysis by leading scholars four quarterly Bible background articles a Teacher Helps article and helps put faith into action The annual uses NRSV and CEB text Refugee

Background Students Transitioning Into Higher Education Loshini Naidoo, Jane Wilkinson, Misty Adoniou, Kiprono Langat, 2018-05-18 This book is one of the first of its kind to examine the aspirations of refugee background students and accompanies them as they journey through the on shore stage of settlement enrolment and participation in the Australian education system It begins with students experiences of on shore settlement followed by the move into schooling and finally the subsequent transition into Australian higher education Transitioning into higher education is a challenge for many students particularly for those from under represented equity groups For refugee background students navigating in through and out of higher education can be particularly complex and challenging Drawing on rich case studies from longitudinal research into refugee youth and the academic and professional staff in schools and universities who support them the book provides powerful and compelling narratives and insights into this journey It untangles the complex nature of transition for students of refugee background in higher education locating it within broader social trends of increasing social and cultural diversity as well as government practices and policies concerning the educational resettlement of refugees Literacy, Vocabulary, and Acculturation Ashraf Esmail, Abul Pitre, Alice Duhon-Ross McCallum, Judith Blakely, H. Prentice
