Papers on Quintilian and Ancient Declamation Michael

Winterbottom,2019-04-04 Declamation the practice of training young men to speak in public by setting them to compose and deliver speeches on fictional legal cases was central to the Greek and Roman educational systems over many centuries and has been the subject of a recent explosion of scholarly interest The work of Michael Winterbottom has been seminal in this regard and the present volume brings together a broad selection of his scholarly articles and reviews published since 1964 creating an authoritative and accessible resource for this burgeoning field of study The assembled papers focus on two related topics the rhetorician Quintilian and ancient declamation in practice Quintilian who taught rhetoric at Rome in the second half of the first century AD was the author of the Institutio Oratoria a key text for Roman educational practice rhetoric and literary criticism Subjects explored in the present collection range widely over not only the establishment and interpretation of the text and its literary and historical context but also Quintilian's views on inspiration morality philosophy and declamation of which he was a practitioner While the volume also offers detailed examinations of the texts and interpretations of a wide range of Latin and Greek authors of declamations such as Seneca the Elder Sopatros and Ennodius there is a particular focus on two collections wrongly attributed to Quintilian the so called Minor and Major Declamations A major re assessment of the manuscript tradition of the latter collection is published here for the first time

Domestic Violence in Diverse Contexts Sarah Wendt,Lana Zannettino,2014-09-15 Overwhelmingly it is women who are the victims of domestic violence and this book puts women's experiences of domestic violence at its centre whilst acknowledging their many diverse and complex identities Concentrating on the various forms of domestic abuse and its occurrence and manifestations within different contexts it argues that gender is centrally implicated in the unique factors that shape violence across all these areas Individual chapters outline the experiences of Mothers Older women Women with religious affiliations Refugee women Rural women Aboriginal women Women in same sex relationships Women with intellectual disabilities Exploring how domestic violence across varying contexts impacts on different women's experiences and understandings of abuse this innovative work draws on post structural feminist theory and how these ideas view and potentially allow gendered explanations of domestic violence Domestic Violence in Diverse Contexts is suitable for academics and researchers interested in issues around violence and gender
