his All Tristan wants to do is paint and go back to the excitement of the mainland where he'd always intended to make a name for himself. There's nothing for him in Vollendale and being forced to obey the whims of the ocean only reminds him of what he's lost. He has no objection to living quietly but he wants to set his own terms and right now he feels like he's stuck in someone else's life. Haunted by the past with a hopeless future ahead of him, Tristan trudges through a tedious present with little to look forward to. He just wants something to break him out of the drudgery. Maki has nothing to complain about in his charmed life beneath the waves of Wyntos Key. He has good friends, a job he loves, and endless opportunities to pursue his passion. Unfortunately, his passion lies in exploring the surface world, which is all but forbidden to his kind. Tritons are a myth to humans, and the merfolk want it to stay that way. But Maki sees such potential in human innovation, dreaming up inventions to enhance the lives of his people as he experiences the wonders of life on land. The human world is fascinatingly rich in sensation, and now that Maki's had a taste, his appetite has only grown. Indulging his insatiable curiosity is addictive but also dangerous, and he's unaware of the consequences his reckless impetuosity will bring. A triton oblivious to the dangers of the surface world, a human terrified of the ocean. There's no reason for them to fit together as well as they do. But destiny works in mysterious ways, and they just might find a place in the world to accommodate them both. The difficulty lies in what they have to sacrifice to get there. The Merman Prince's Daddy Colbie Dunbar, Lorelei M Hart, 2021-09-25. I swam from my future only to find my daddy. Alpha wolf shifter Alton heard the call of the sea from his pack's territory in the mountains. Yet it's only in the wake of his father's death that he follows destiny's current to the shoreline. While his soul finds peace during the day listening to the gently lapping waves, at night his dreams are haunted by long-suppressed memories. Through those flashes of moments long forgotten, Alton realizes he's there for more than a new start. It's up to him to right the wrongs of the past. As next in line for the throne, omega merman Merrik's entire life has been arranged for him. Which means an alpha has been chosen for him. Unfortunately, even the idea of this mating makes Merrik's skin crawl. That leaves him with only one choice: leave his underwater kingdom and cross his fingers the whole situation blows over. Little does he know fate has other plans. No sooner do his toes sink into the sand than Merrik feels the unmistakable pull of the mate bond. The fact that it's to a human would have been shocking enough, but to a smexy wolf bearing the mark of the forbidden ones is downright scandalous. His father may never forgive him, yet Merrik can't deny he aches for Alton's touch. Can the love they share rewrite their people's sordid history? Or will it come crashing down like white-capped waves on a rocky shoreline? The Merman Prince's Daddy is the first book in the Mythically Royal series featuring princes who find their happily ever after. The Merman Prince's Daddy features a merman who'd rather not be prince, a shifter who didn't know mermen were real, an underwater kingdom,
