Managing Democracy Managing Dissent:

Managing Democracy, Managing Dissent Rebecca Fisher, 2014-12 Managing Democracy Managing Dissent comprises of twenty essays written by writers academics and activists and edited by Corporate Watch researcher Rebecca Fisher which collectively argue that in today's democracy elite interests are served by the limitations placed upon popular participation in decision making by the manipulation of public opinion through propaganda and from the attempts to co-opt marginalise and or repress oppositional politics This ground breaking book reveals how despite its inherently anti democratic nature global capitalism is dependent upon the manipulation of the concept of democracy to survive It thus exposes a potential weakness at the heart of capitalism which activists and campaigners can usefully target in their struggle against oppression and environmental destruction The volume includes examinations of the inherent contradiction between genuine democracy and corporate capitalism the use of corporate media the entertainment industry and celebrity activists as propaganda vehicles the attempts to co-opt and neutralise NGOs and social movements the demonisation and repression of unco-opted dissent and the imperialist agendas behind so called democracy promotion interventions Publisher description Managed Dissent Timothy Zick, 2023-05-11 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the wide ranging body of law that applies to public protest activity How Corrupt is Britain? David Whyte, 2015-03-20 Banks accused of rate fixing Members of Parliament cooking the books Major defence contractors investigated over suspect arms deals Police accused of being paid off by tabloids The headlines are unrelenting these days Perhaps it's high time we ask just exactly how corrupt is Britain David Whyte brings together a wide range of leading commentators and campaigners offering a series of troubling answers Unflinchingly facing the corruption in British public life they show that it is no longer tenable to assume that corruption is something that happens elsewhere corrupt practices are revealed across a wide range of venerated institutions from local government to big business These powerful exposes shine a light on the corruption fundamentally embedded in UK politics police and finance Radical Environmental Resistance Heather Alberro, 2023-11-29 Exploring the role of direct action within times of severe social and ecological upheaval this book evokes the rich diverse world that radical environmental activists and indigenous environmental protectors are fighting for Foreign Aid to the Gaza Strip between Trusteeship and De-Development Ahmed Tannira, 2020-12-15 The book examines the impact of aid to the Palestinian population in the Gaza Strip from the 1993 Oslo Agreement up to 2013 It attempts to go beyond the general notion that the Israeli occupation is the main instrument of control and de-development and rather tries to investigate these aspects and the dynamics that have surrounded foreign aid delivery in the Territory At the socio economic level the book explores how donors definition of partner for peace has exacerbated socio economic inequalities within the Palestinian population in the Gaza Strip The book also looks at how foreign aid has been used as an instrument for particular groups to advance politically and through this socially and economically Hence the book attempts to investigate the resultant socio economic imbalances within Palestinian society in the Gaza Strip Criminology and War Sandra Walklate, Ross McGarry, 2015-03-24 It is widely observed that the study of war has been paid limited attention within criminology This is intellectually curious given that acts of war have occurred persistently throughout history and perpetuate criminal acts victimisation and human rights violations on a scale unprecedented with domestic levels of crime However there are authoritative voices within criminology who have been studying war from the borders of the discipline This book contains a selection of criminological authors who have been authoritatively engaged in studying criminology and war Following an introduction that places war within criminology the collection is arranged across three themed sections including Theorising War Law and Crime Linking War and Criminal Justice and War Sexual Violence and Visual Trauma Each chapter takes substantive topics within criminology and victimology i e corporate crime history imprisonment criminal justice sexual violence trauma security and crime control to name but a few and invites the reader to engage in critical discussions relating to wars both past and present The chapters within this collection are theoretically rich empirically diverse and come together to create the first authoritative published collection of original essays specifically dedicated to criminology and war Students and researchers alike interested in war critical criminology and victimology will find this an accessible study companion that centres the disparate criminological attention to war into one comprehensive collection
