Good evening friends, family, faculty, and fellow graduates.

As we stand here today, on the brink of a new chapter in our lives, it's hard to believe that it's already been four years (or however long it took us to get here). It seems like just yesterday that we were nervously stepping onto campus, not quite sure what to expect.

But as we look back on the past four years, it's clear that we've come a long way. We've made new friends, learned new things, and grown as individuals. We've faced challenges and overcome them, and we've learned to persevere through difficult times.

And as we move on from this chapter in our lives, I encourage each and every one of us to remember the lessons we've learned and the experiences we've had. These experiences will shape who we are and how we approach the world, and they will serve us well in the years ahead.

But before we get too ahead of ourselves, let's take a moment to reflect on how we got here. I'm sure we all have different stories and experiences, but there are a few things that I think we can all relate to.

For starters, I'm sure we can all agree that college is a lot of hard work. Between classes, assignments, and exams, it's easy to get bogged down and feel overwhelmed. But despite the challenges, we've persevered and made it to this point.

I'm also sure that we've all had moments where we felt lost or unsure of ourselves. It's natural to feel that way, especially when you're trying to navigate a new environment and figure out your place in the world. But despite these moments of uncertainty, we've found our footing and discovered our passions.

And most importantly, I'm sure we can all agree that college has been an amazing experience. We've had the opportunity to learn from some of the best professors in the field, engage in meaningful discussions and debates, and be part of a community of like-minded individuals.

So, as we move on from this chapter in our lives, let's remember to be grateful for the experiences we've had and the people who have supported us along the way. To our parents, who have always believed in us and encouraged us to pursue our dreams, thank you for your unwavering love and guidance. To our teachers and mentors, who have imparted their knowledge and wisdom upon us, thank you for your invaluable guidance and encouragement. And to our friends, who have stood by us through thick and thin, thank you for your friendship and support.

The Half-Opened Door Marcia Synnott, 2017-07-12 By the turn of the twentieth century academic nativism had taken root in elite American colleges specifically Harvard Yale and Princeton White Anglo Saxon Protestant hegemony was endangered by new kinds of student many of them Catholic and Jewish immigrants The newcomers threatened to displace native born Americans by raising academic standards and winning a disproportionate share of the scholarships The Half Opened Door analyzes the role of these institutions casting light on their place in class structure and values in the United States It details the origins history and demise of discriminatory admissions processes and depicts how the entrenched position of the upper class was successfully challenged The educational and hence economic mobility of Catholics and Jews has shown other groups for example African Americans Asian Americans and Spanish speaking Americans not only the difficulties that these earlier aspirants had in overcoming class and ethnic barriers but the fact that it can be done One of the ironies of the history of higher education in the United States is the use of quotas by admissions committees Restrictive measures were imposed on Jews because they were so successful whereas benign quotas are currently used to encourage underrepresented minorities to enter colleges and professional schools The competing claims of both the older and the newer minorities continue to be the subject of controversy editorial comments and court cases and will be for years to come
