days in the year and brought him to the verge of the grave In 1879 he resigned his professorship From 1882 to 1888 his state of health improved though extremely slowly His eyes were still so weak that he was threatened with blindness He was compelled to be extremely careful in his mode of life and to choose his place of residence in obedience to climatic and meteorological conditions He usually spent the winter at Nice and the summer at Sils Maria in the Upper Engadine The years 1887 and 1888 were astonishingly rich in production they saw the publication of the most remarkable works of widely different nature and the preparation of a whole series of new books Then at the close of the latter year perhaps as the result of overstrain a violent attack of mental disorder occurred from which Nietzsche never recovered To be continue in this ebook
