Report of the Commissioners on Agricultural, Commercial, Industrial, and Other Forms of Technical Education New South Wales. Commission on Primary, Secondary, Technical, and Other Branches of Education, 1905 Speculative Art Histories Sjoerd van Tuinen, 2018-03-14 First full scale thematic analysis of Pina Bausch's Tanztheater critically evaluating the impact of modernist theatre on her choreographic method Nature Of Ornament Kent Bloomer, 2000-10-31 Yet during the twentieth century ornament was scorned Adolf Loos famously called it crime and its study all but eliminated from art and architecture curricula What happened and must we live with the result Is ornament dead Proceedings of the International Conference on Religious Architecture (ICRA 2024) Sutrisno Murtiyoso, Alvin Hadiwono, Titin Fatimah, Nafiah Solikhah, Samsu Hendra Siwi, 2025-06-26 This is an open access book Religion produced noteworthy architectures from the beginning of humanity Religion gives meaning and direction to human life and in the process unites and empowers human beings to direct their aspirations and resources to build spectacular works of houses of worship and gathering Religious architecture fills a significant part of history of architecture Since ages for the religions of mankind human beings have evolved a plethora of forms in simple stone buildings to the ones in sophisticated modern materials and technologies From an architectural point of view every building built for religion is sacred meaning it is dedicated to the powers beyond However the manifestations are so much varied as they depend on the regulations sanctioned by different religious teachings combined with the society's culture and tradition and the builder's intentions and aspirations Added to that are the local environmental factors the availability of building materials existing building technology and the time span of its development From what we know today the oldest religious architecture could be found in Gbekli Tepe built around 10 000 years ago when humanity still lived as hunter gatherers Architecture developed further into megalithic period became increasingly monumental in the medieval age with colossal royal worship complexes Up to modern times we keep on building religious architectures with increasing elaboration The International Conference on Religious Architecture is organized with a hope to broaden our understanding and perspective in this often neglected field The study in religious architecture is more acutely felt in the regions outside of Europe and America while the demand is clearly pressing today The Conference should serve as a forum for scholars in the field hopefully being the first one in a series Projective Ornament Claude Fayette Bragdon, 1915 The Kalendar of the Royal Institute of British Architects Royal Institute of British Architects, 1907 Bulletin - University Number Syracuse University, 1883 British Builder, 1921 The Historiography of Persian Architecture Mohammad

Gharipour,2015-08-27 Historiography is the study of the methodology of writing history the development of the discipline of history and the changing interpretations of historical events in the works of individual historians Exploring the historiography of Persian art and architecture requires a closer look at a diverse range of sources including chronicles historical accounts travelogues and material evidence coming from archaeological excavations The Historiography of Persian Architecture highlights the political cultural and intellectual contexts that lie behind the written history of Persian architecture in the twentieth century presenting a series of investigations on issues related to historiography This book addresses the challenges complexities and contradictions regarding historical and geographical diversity of Persian architecture including issues lacking in the 20th century historiography of Iran and neighbouring countries This book not only illustrates different trends in Persian architecture but also clarifies changing notions of research in this field Aiming to introduce new tools of analysis the book offers fresh insights into the discipline supported by historical documents archaeological data treatises and visual materials It brings together well established and emerging scholars from a broad range of academic spheres in order to question and challenge pre existing historiographical frameworks particularly through specific case studies Overall it provides a valuable contribution to the study of Persian architecture simultaneously revisiting past literature and advancing new approaches This book would be of interest to students and scholars of Middle East and Iranian Studies as well as Architectural History including Islamic architecture and historiography
